

pil for action, to make her efficient in whatever she undertakes, to train her to firmness of purpose and fruitfulness of resource in common life, and especially in emergencies, in times of difficulty, danger and trial. They may also add, that they consider physical education of great importance; that the pupil should be well instructed in those laws which govern human life and health.

Such is a brief outline of that kind of education which the Proprietors of this School pledge themselves to promote. It shall be their constant care to promote the health and physical comfort of their pupils; to make them practically acquainted with the physical, mental, and moral laws of their being; to impart a thorough knowledge of individual, social and domestic duties; to illuminate and expand the mind, correct the taste, and form the manners; to inspire the soul with unconquerable aversion to all that is low, grovelling, dishonorable and depraved; to awaken in it perpetual aspirations after all that is useful, great, glorious and good; in a word, to form their whole character upon such a model as will fit them to fill with credit and happiness to themselves, and with advantage to others their own peculiar sphere in life.
