Andrew Stuart, Esq. Agent for the Quebee Constitutional Association, passed through Montreal on the 3rd inst, on his way to Eng-jand. He did not proceed to Upper Canada as he had originally intended.

The sittings of the Legislature of Upper anada were to be protogued on the 3rd inst.

A Special Commission has its used in Toron-to for the trial of persons charged with state offences. The session is to commence on the Sth instant. It is supposed that the Chief Justice will preside and be assisted by some of the Puisne Judges.

We are most happy to learn that it is the intention of Sir Francis Houd to proceed for England by the Kennebec Read. He will leave immediately on the arrival of his suc-cessor, Sir George Arthur.

McKenzie, the rebel, has addressed a letter to the editor of the Jelfersonian, in which he disclaims all connexion with Van Rensselaer. He says, "I have neither seen nor corres-ponded with Mr. Rensselaer Van Rensselaer in his recent movements on this fourier, but have earnestly and invariably urged my friends to withdraw all confidence from him, in matters connected with Canada."

The Montreal Gazette arknowledges the receipt of a Declaration of Independence, which was lately issued "by order of the Provisional Government of the State of Lower Canada," both signed by Robert Nelson; the first as commander in chief of the Pathoi Army," and the second as "President." "The Proclamation is a solemn premise on the part of the Pathoi Army, not to lay down their arms, until they secured to their country "the blessings of a pathotic and sympathising Government." The President of the Lower 'anada republic is now in jail, along with his basty Ancient, Dr. Cote, and the Army (?) "At the very time," says the St. John's Cosrier, "that these Commoners were likel-ling us before Parliament and the British peo-ple, there was not a serviceable man of the Queen's troops within the Province, and a few volunteers from the militia were performing the Garrison duty of the Province."

There was a fatal duel at Washington on the 24th ultimo, between two senators, Mr. Cilley of Maine, and Mr. Graves of Kentur ky. They fought swage like, with rifles, and fired three times without inpury, but at the fourna ite, Cilley was shot through the body, the ball dividing the principal attery leading to the beart. If e placed his hand on the part where the ball entered, exclaiming "I am wound-d" gaped two or three times and expired. The unfortunate affair originated in Col. Webb of the New York Courier challenging Cilley for what he had said of him in the House, Graves carrying the challenge. Cilley said he would not fight such a blackguard as Webb, and was consequently challenged by Graves, who was not wounded. Considerable excite-ment exists at Washington on the subject. ere was a fatal duel at Washington

Private letters received yesterday state that Private letters received yesterday state that the pirates in Michigan have actually landed in Walpole Bay, Lake Saint Clair, and that General Brady of the U.S. army has declared that he will not allow them to re-turn into the American territory. Our oid friend D. Dunlop, at the head of the Huron volunteers will be found an ugly customer for them. The very name of Tiger Dunlop will be enough to frighten them out of their wits.

We learned yesterday. evening, that on Thursday forenoon Dr. Robert Nelson and Dr. Cote, at the head of about four hundred arm-ed men advanced into this province from Atdbury in the State of Vermont with the inten-tion of advancing upon Montreal under the im-pression that the thoops had been sent to the Upper province, in which case they expocted to liberate the prisoners now in gaol for High Treason. General Wool with a detachment of Militia informed them of the real strength of the British army both on the frontier and in this city, and added that he could not allow them to return to the United States territory with arms in their hands, which he would con-consider an invasion from a foreign country, and oppose them by force. It was then de-cided by the rebest that they should deliver up their arms and three pieces of artillery cided by the rebels that they should deliver up their arms and three pieces of artillery which they had with them, Dr. Nelson and Dr. Cote being secured as prisoners, and lodg-ed in St. Albans good from which they will likely be soon released on hail, General Wool's Aid-de-camp arrived in town yester-day with despatches to this Excellence, It is said that there were only two Americans in the invaluing band of vagabonds, which ac-counts for the disportance, during the last month, of so many Canadians from the city and suberis. and suberbs.

and suberos. It is a pity that General Wool interfered with the plans of the Rebels, especially as they had actually commenced the advance; they could not have proceeded far without encoun-toring the troops and it is not likely that many would have escaped. Joshna Bell was one of the party, ready once more to mape his gun at Her Majesty's subjects.—Mon-treal Herald.

A Fire broke out yestenday morning about seven o'clock in the hardware stores of Messra-foregory and Cushing, St. Paul Street, which immediately communicated to the dry good store of Mr. J. C. Perkins, and we regret to say consumed the whole building. The house we understand was the property of the latter and on the 18th uit, the devouring element made its appearance on the same premises, but was fortunately got under without its having done any considereble damage. TO THE PUBLIC.

EF THE LITERARY TRANSCRIPT, which is now published semi-weekly, will, on the opening of the navigation, appear three times a-week, when, in addition to the usual literary and miscellaneous mat-ter, and news of the day, it will contain the latest shipping intelligence, manifests of the cargoes of ressels as they arrive in port, carefully digested reviews of the markets, and a complete prices curren for Quebec,-forming at once a desirable acquisition to the merchant and trader, and an amus g nd instructive journal to all.

The almost unparalelled success which this paper has met on the threshold of its eareer is strong pre sumptive proof that its general tune and bearing have given ratisfaction ; and its rapidly increasing circulation will give fcesh energy to its proprietor to continue to glide down the pleasing stream of public estimation.

I The circulation of THE TRANSCRIPT, which is daily increasing, already amounts to ONE THOU SAND OF EACH FUBLICATION ; and it consequently offers decided advantages to persons desirous of giving publicity to their advertisements.
