GOSSIP.

John T. Gibson, Denfield, Ont., in renewing his advertisement of Shorthorn cattle, writes: I was talking to a large steer feeder the other day, who said he would either have to go out of the business, or go somewhere else for his steers to feed, as it was practically impossible to get a bunch of good steers without a lot of trash mixed with them. Where the beef is coming from in the near future, I cannot figure out. If the Canadian people are satisfied to eat beef fed from dairy-bred cattle, they may get that, but that is not the kind of beef this great country should produce.

Dalgely Bros., of Glencoe, Ont., have lately sold to Martin H. Rosser, of Denfield, Ont., the choice-quality Clydesdale stallion, Sir Randolph, a son of the noted prize horse, Moneriffe Marquis, by Prince of Carruehan, by Prince of Wales, his dam being by that good breeding horse, Tulloch. Sir Randolph is a massive, thick, smooth horse, with a superior quality of underpinning, and has to his credit as winnings in the land of his birth, first at Bishopton, Paisley and Beith, and reserve champion as a yearling; first and champion at Bishopton and Paisley, and second at Glasgow as a two-year-old. He has always held noted premiums, and is the sire of numerous prizewinners in Scotland. He is the kind of horse that is calculated to leave a decided improvement on the size and quality of the draft horses in any section in which he may go, and the breeders around Denfield are to be congratulated in having him in their section.

MORE SHORTHORNS AT AUCTION.

Another lot of Scotch Shorthorns of superior type, quality and breeding, will be sold at the Union Stock-yards, West Toronto, on the evening of Thursday, February 3rd, commencing at 7 o'clock. These represent the dispersion of the entire herd of A. D. Schmidt & Sons, of Elmira, Ont. This herd was gotten together at a big expense, long prices being paid for a number of them, but will now be sold for whatever is bid for them, as Mr. Schmidt is going into other business. All told, there are thirteen head, Crim-son Flowers, Minas, Wedding Gifts, El-virus, Nonparils, etc. Dunrobin Prim-rose is a white three-year-old daughter of Imp. Lucerne, a grand, thick-fleshed heifer. Mina Lass 13th is a red four-year-old, a show proposition, by Imp. Proud Gift, dam by Imp. Prime Minister. Sunset is a red three-year-old, by Missie Champion, dam Imp. Susanna, by Scot-tish Bard. This is another right good thick one, put up on show lines. These are sufficient to show the royal way in which they are bred. Several of the younger ones are the get of the Cran-berry-bred bull, Imp. Greengill Archer, others are got by Sunny-side King, a son of the noted champion, Imp. Spicy Mar-quis, Imp. Bandolier, the Marigold-bred bull, Prime Sailor, and the Matchless-bred Matchless Duke. Others are out of daughters of that great breeding bull, Imp. Derby. They are essentially a high-class lot, thick and even-fleshed, and in splendid condition, in age ranging from yearlings up. There will also be sold the stock bull, Imp. Deedsie Chief, a roan five-year-old, sired by the Emma-bred bull, King Victor, dam Cinderilla, a Mar-rian Lady. This bull was champion of the Maritime Provinces for two years, is away above the average in the matter of thickness of flesh and modern type, a grand handler, and right in every par-ticular. Other bulls to be sold are Model Chancellor, a red two-year-old, by a son of Imp. Bapton Chancellor, dam a Crimson Flower; Archer's Gift, a roan fourteen-months-old, a Wedding Gift, sired by Imp. Greengill Archer. The other is a red six-months-old, a Crimson Flower, got by the same sire. Also, there will be sold a consignment by F. W. Nichol-son, Flesherton, Ont.; four head, Telluria's Secret, sired by Imp. Derby, is a red yearling bull, with a calf at foot, a red yearling bull, a son of hers, by Scottish Pride, and Dubside Rose, a roan three-year-old heifer, by Imp. King Ed-ward. As will be seen by the above, the offering is bred on the most approved Scotch lines. For fuller particulars as to terms, etc., look up the advertisement in another column, and write Mr. Schmidt for catalogue.
