

The Girl We Like.

First and foremost she is an unselfish girl. She has learned that there are other people in the world with rights as valid as her own. She has learned, furthermore, that these other people have a claim upon her time and talents, and that she owes even the most uninteresting of them a debt of love and kindly service.

In the second place she is a "sunshiny" girl. Frowns and sulkiness find no abiding place with this cheery maiden. She always looks on life's brightest side, taking a cheerful view of things in general. Sunshine in her laughter, sunshine in her words and sunshine in her warm handclasp.

She is, moreover, a modest girl. Modest in her dress, speech and behaviour. She knows the difference between true modesty and prudishness, and in cultivating the one does not bore us with the other.

This maiden we all adore is a kind-hearted girl. She has learned to respect the feelings of others, and never allows herself to indulge in unkind remarks, even for the entertainment of friends. Gossip she abhors, and would rather cut off her right hand than originate or repeat anything injurious to the fair name of some other girl. She believes that "woman, in her deepest degradation, holds something sacred, something undefiled, some pledge and keepsake of her higher nature."

The girl we like is an honest girl. Honest in her opinions and in her professions; not given to flattery nor resorting to deception. She is a girl with stability of character, never sacrificing principle for popularity. She knows the boundary line between innocent and sinful amusements, and firmly stays on the right side. She is not a frail, clinging, cowardly creature, however. Far from it! There is no jollier, happier, more independent being in the world than this girl we all like.

To make Home Pretty and

IS THE
EVERY LADY

Perhaps we can help you a little by improving some unsightly arch, a nice piece over a bay window, a screen for a stairway, a cozy corner, a handsome stationary or folding screen. The expense will not be much and would add greatly to the appearance of the rooms.

We make these in Moorish fret work, Japanese fret work, Serbi or Grille work, combinations of the different styles, and many finished in any kind of wood desired.
