The ancient Church of St. Peter and St. Paul at Hope, Derbyshire, has just been enriched with a fine memorial window of special design and a fine marble reredos.

We have recently made arrangements with an English publisher to handle a series of books called and the first three volumes have just come to hand and are as follows:

Vol. I.—A Brief Discourse of the Troubles at Frankfort, 1554-1558.
By William Whittingham, Dean of Durham. $1.50 postpaid. This brief discourse introduces us to a famous company of Protestant divines: Calvin, Knox and a perfect galaxy of archbishops, bishops, deans and writers of the Church of England.

Vol. II.—The Torments of Protestant Slaves in the French King's Gallies and in the Dungeons of Marseilles, 1696-1707.
Edited by Prof. E. Arber. $1.75 postpaid. The horrifying story of the Revocation atrocities can never be fully told, but a sufficient notice is taken of them in this volume to show what they actually were. Some account is also given of the great Huguenot Exodus out of France, and of the large sums of money raised for the fugitives.

Vol. III.—The Sayings of the Wise; or Food for thought. A book of moral wisdom, gathered from ancient philosophers. By William Baldwin. $1.25 postpaid. This book may be described as a moral tonic. No one can read it through without being the better for it.

These three books are well printed on good paper, and the cloth binding is of the best quality. In fact, we do not remember getting from England any books that are so attractive in appearance and interesting in subject matter than the volumes which have just come to hand.
