A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.

 Sir Ernest Cassel, the English financier, has arranged, according to an announcement made, to establish a foundation of $1,000,000, the income from which is to be used for the benefit of poor Germans seeking employment in England, and poor British subjects seeking work in Germany, who are without money for their support. The new foundation will be in memory of the late King Edward of Great Britain, who was a friend of Sir Ernest's, and with whom the financier had been closely associated for many years. Sir Ernest Cassel, though a British subject, has retained his interest in his native land, Germany.
