NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A special cable to the Herald says:

Lord Curzon of Kedlestone, formerly 'viceroy of India, addressing the masters and boys at Harrow school last evening, said:

"Germany's action toward Belgium is the greatest crime in history. The German emperor's name will go down to posterity as 'William, the blood-stained,' and 'William, the assassin.'

Regarding the duration of the liam, the assassin."

Regarding the duration of the war, Lord Curzon expressed the opinion that "more than one Christmas would pass before the soldiers returned home."

"Germany has taken Antwerp to fortify it, to keep it, to make a great naval port of it, to use it as a great jumping off place for her future attempts upon this country. It is no temporary occupation unless we make it so."

In closing, Lord Curzon advised his hearers not to begin to divide up the German Empire "before you have got hold of it."
