BRANTS' INFIELD BLEW UP; SAINTS SCORE EIGHT RUNS

Rube Made Big Mistake by Putting Higgins out and Substituting "Slab" Warner, Who Was Found For Five Singles and Four Runs.

Poor infield work by LaCroix, Mullin and Fried allowed the Saints to get away with the game yesterday at the Agricultural Park when they won out by the score of 8-7, after giving a time exhibition whose only sparks of life were shown at the opening and at the end. The memory of those middle innings should be blotted out, if Brants are to make a name for themselves in the Canadian League.

The game opened as favorably as it the Gods had smiled upon the locals, but with the infield casting lemons around the Deities smiled in vain. St. Thomas should never have tallied in the fourth if Fried had not pulled a bumperbone bone and he was later defended by Mullins in the work of lowering to Dad Stewart's gang the second game of the series.

The game demonstrates the Brants' need of a catcher with a clear head. LaCroix threw erratically and twice heaved high when good hitting meant cutting off runs. Three bases were stolen on him, and together he put in a bad day. More than once he failed to show where his brains lay and hit into a double play when the Indians were making runs in the eighth, one man being down, three runs across and two men on bases.

Fried to a great extent atoned for the bone he pulled in the fourth when he booted, allowing Stewart to get to first and Ort to go home, by hitting well and at opportune moments.

Mike Mullins did not make a showing at all on third, and twice he was responsible for muffs in that terrible fourth which was followed by an equally tragic fifth. In all the Saints got away with eight runs in these two spasmic weak infield work. Higgins was in no way responsible, although he was taken out, which was another mistake, Rube being responsible.

Leading the attack he had held the field. The attack he had held the field. The attack he had held the field.

Brants took a nice lead in the first when Dunn singled and Burrill walked. Mullin went out punching to second, being the second man down.

Green already having failed to do his needful. Dunlop reached first on a long drive to centre, sending Dunn and Burrill over, Dunlop crossing the plate when Fried walked, Foran going out at first.

THE FOURTH.

With this lead Higgins was cool and confident, and held the Railroaders hitless until Harris tapped him in the fourth sending runs home. The break began when Ort walked, and Bradley was presented with a base by Dunlop. Stewart then received a gift from Mullins, and Ort went home. Todd whiffed and Inker was out, hitting to short. Forgie was passed and Harris landed heavily for a double, scoring Higgins, Stewart and Forgie. Reilly went out to first. Four runs on one hit.

THE FIFTH.

Following this calamity, the Saints came back in the fifth and emulated their feat. Kopp made an infield hit and beat out the ball, to steal second a moment later. Here LaCroix failed. Ort singled and stretched it into a two bagger on a wild peg. It was then that Rube made the mistake of putting "Slab" Warner in for Higgins. The pitcher had been cool and kept his head, and was not to blame for the score. Slab's first man swatted hard to right by Hadley and two runs came home. Stewart connected and was lucky to reach first on an infield bunt. Todd went out going to first, when Inker doubled sending two more runs across, Forgie and Harris followed each other to the bench, and the inning closed with the tally 8-3. Kopp should never have secured his base and Ort should have been caught stealing, while Stewart reached first on a virtual gift.

Warner then got into his stride and got fairly good support, shutting up a tight, and refusing the Railroaders any tickets to bases.

Little life was evident in the work of the Brants in front of Reilly and they retired in order.

Coming to the eighth the Indians rallied and brought in three runs causing the fans to enquire. Dunn walked, Burrill doubled, and Mullin filled the bases with a scratchy single. Dunlop fanned and Fried bled, sending in Dunn. Foran connected at St. Thomas.

Burrill and Mullin came in. LaCroix went to bat and played into an easy double from Forgie to Todd to Ort, with two men camping on the bases.

Saints were down before Wagner Coombs in a close battle to-day, and Pittsburgh beat Brooklyn by a score of three to one. Wagner figured prominently in the victory. He tripled in the sixth, scored his first home run, and scored himself on a close decision at the plate. When Viox hit a short sacrifice fly to Myers, Wagner was hurt in the collision and retired, while Miller was put off the field by Umpire Byron for protesting the decision. The score: Pittsburgh, 3; Brooklyn, 1. R. H. E. Pittsburgh, 3 5 2 Brooklyn, 1 4 3 Batteries—Mammaux and Gibson; Coombs and McCarty, Miller.

RAY DEMMITT REPORTS

TO MANAGER CLYMER

Toronto, May 29.—Ray Demmitt, the Leaf's new outfielder, reported to Manager Clymer last night from Chicago White Sox, and will play centre field for the Leafs this afternoon in the double header with the Skeeters, and his presence should strengthen the locals. He will bat fourth in the batting order, following Hollandier, Messenger and Graham.

Yesterday's thirteen innings great struggle was one of the grandest ball games seen here in years, and if only one of the two is as good this afternoon the fans will certainly see some grand ball. This will be the last appearance of the Leafs until next Thursday when they come home for a series with Montreal and an exhibition game with the Boston Braves on Friday. On Monday the Leafs will play morning and afternoon at Buffalo.

Diamond Dust

Brown, the outfielder secured from Washington, who faded in both fielding and hitting after the first few days of the season, will likely be sent to Guelph.

"Bill" O'Hara, attired in his gray travelling uniform, worked out in the preliminary practice, but disappeared before the crowd arrived. He did not sit on the bench during the game.

Thorppe, the great Indian athlete, showed great speed on the base lines. While he secured only one hit, it was all Roach could do to field his grounders fast enough to nip him at the initial sack.

Victoria Harbor, Ont., May 28.—(Special)—"I took Dodd's Kidney Pills for Rheumatism, weak heart and general debility, and the results justify me in recommending Dodd's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from these troubles."

The speaker was Mr. D. A. Brotherton, a well known citizen of this place. Continuing, Mr. Brotherton said:

"For several years I was troubled with rheumatism in my left hand and then to my left shoulder. It was very annoying and painful at times."

"I heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills helping others so I quit the liniment I had been using and took six boxes of them. The Rheumatism disappeared."

"I also know Dodd's Kidney Pills to be good for Kidney trouble both in my own case and through others." Rheumatism is caused by uric acid in the blood. If the Kidneys are healthy they will strain all the uric acid out of the blood. The natural way to cure the Rheumatism is to cure the kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.
