

CITY COUNCIL SETS NEW RECORD FOR SHORT SESSION

Small Amount of Business Rushed Through in 50 Minutes, Followed by Abrupt Adjournment

Last evening's session of the city council was probably the shortest ever placed on record, being cut short after 50 minutes' routine business, on the motion of Ald. Dowling.

The officers of the Brant Sanatorium wish to acknowledge the following donations: Miss Leeming and friend, fruit, magazines and wine; I.O.E., Brant Chapter, fruit, bread and kitchen utensils; Mrs. Schell, tea kettle; Mrs. Fowler, magazines and Mrs. Hazleton, fruit.

BONDS FOR SALE

Now that the second Canadian war loan has been liberally over-subscribed, municipalities holding bonds for sale, may be desirous of placing their issues on the market. If the City of Brantford is contemplating any such move, the Canada Bond Corporation of Toronto has notified City Clerk H. F. Leonard that they would be pleased to receive the full particulars of any such debentures.

FIRE IN COIDAGE WORKS

About 12 o'clock last night a fire was discovered in the western section of the main factory of the Cordage works in West Brantford. The sprinkler system, as in the previous fire, held the fire in check until the arrival of the firemen. One line of hose was used in the western section of the main factory of the Cordage works in West Brantford. The sprinkler system, as in the previous fire, held the fire in check until the arrival of the firemen.

News From Simcoe

(From Our Own Correspondent) Simcoe, Oct. 2.—The funerals of Joseph Henderson, Mrs. Harriett Pettit and Charles Butler, were all conducted here this afternoon. Rev. A. J. Farney, who arrived at 11 o'clock from Ingersoll, where he had preached thanksgiving sermons, conducted two of these and assisted at the third. Mr. Henderson died on Saturday of gangrene, the other two early Friday morning. Mr. Butler was a resident of Simcoe for thirty years. He was the father of a family of four sons and two daughters, most of whom live in Simcoe.

At a long session of the town council held last night, a by-law authorizing a special levy to raise $4,000 for street watering and oiling was passed. Instructions were given for the building of sidewalks and crossings, principally about the shoe factory vicinity and leading to the L. E. and N. depot.

The sewer extension work is held up because the plans are not ready. The council declined to vote an additional $20,000 for school buildings till they shall have conferred with the board of education.

It is on the street this morning that Capt. Heath, Capt. McDowell and Major McIntosh have resigned, and it is claimed by some that there will shortly be no 133rd, that the battalion will be broken up to make drafts for other units.

GOOD THROUGH THE WINDOW LENS by Leona Dalcomple

It was bad enough for Jan to know that an elf lived in his mother's opera glasses. It was worse to know that with the lens broken the elf could come out of the broken tunnel whenever he chose. It kept Jan pretty nervous. He had to go to the bureau again and again to see if the elf was running around loose in the bureau drawer and when he failed to catch him at it, more often than not, he was disappointed. Then one day, when his mother wasn't home, Jan opened the drawer and there on the rim of the opera glasses sat the elf with his glassy clothes and his eyes like lens that made you feel so queer and pucky.

"Hello!" he said coolly. "Hello," said Jan. "What about going through the opera glass tunnel with me to-day?" demanded the elf. "You haven't seen the magic forest at the end of the opera glass yet." "The last time I walked into the golden tunnel," said Jan a little afraid, "my grandmother screwed the lens on, and I almost didn't get out. I had to break the glass." "Pooh!" said the elf, "that can't happen again. With the lens broken the golden tunnel has to stay broken.

RED ROSE TEA is good tea. Mrs. Able Says: PEOPLE ask me why my tea tastes so good. First, I use freshly drawn water. When boiling briskly I pour it over the leaves, allowing the tea to steep, not boil, five minutes. Next, I pour the tea off the leaves into another pot. In that way you get the flavor of Red Rose Tea in all its fullness and richness. Try it. In sealed packages only.
