WEDDING BELLS

Baird-Jenks

The Parrsboro Baptist church was the scene of a brilliant military wedding on Monday evening when Helen Faye, only daughter of Mr. H. Corey Jenks, was united in matrimony to Private Murray Bryant Baird, of Kentville. The bride was "just too sweet" in a gown of white embroidered Brussels net over satin, with veil and orange blossoms, the groom being khaki-clad. The bridesmaid, Miss Francis Black, of Amherst, a cousin of the bride, was charming in old rose silk and lace. The groom was supported by Corp. Wasson Turple. Sergeants David Pettis and Harold Pickard were the ushers, and the young ladies of the Philathea Class, of which Miss Jenks was the teacher, dressed in navy blue middie suits, formed a very pretty Guard of honor. The church which was crowded to overflowing, was decorated with flags and bunting and the bridal party stood under an arch of red, white and blue while Rev. Z. L. Fash officiated. After the ceremony, a delightful reception was given at the home of the bride. Miss Jenks was one of our most popular and charming young ladies and she and her soldier lover have the warmest wishes of all for a bright and happy future after the war. They are at present visiting in New Brunswick, but will reside at Kentville. Parrsboro Leader.

The Exclusive Action of the Heintzman

Heintzman & Co. (Ye Olde Firm) use the one action exclusively in all their pianos. A few other manufacturers use the same action, but in their highest priced instruments only.

Although a Canadian product, the Heintzman Piano has been exhibited in England, Australia and the United States, taking first place wherever exhibited and winning more highest awards than any piano made.

If you select a Heintzman, you have an instrument that will preserve its beautiful appearance and noble tone as long as your house lasts.

We can show you several Heintzman Uprights and Grands. Or ask for catalog.
