A Harbinger of Beauty

Diamonds of the purest water, without flaw or discoloration, horses with a pedigree that dates back to Pegasus, Horses that are built enduringly and beautiful—the perfection of each of these is sought for and attained in the Heintzman Piano.

Machinery could be used to make most of it, and at a greater profit. But it is subordinated to the process whereby slowly, painstakingly, grey haired craftsmen create the beauty that the Heintzman Piano brings into every home it adorns
