

PLORING TO DEATH

The Siberian Atrocities Worn That at First Reported.

A GOVERNOR'S BRUTALITY

A London cable says: The London agent of the Russian Press yesterday questioned Sergius Slepniak, the well-known writer of Russian political and social criticism, regarding the recent execution of political prisoners in the Eastern Siberia. Mr. Slepniak said the reports already published gave only a hint of the horror of the execution. He said that the only information he had received has been in other letters that go through to Paris and London from the Eastern Siberia.

He said that the reports of the execution were not long ago in reaching the western world. Coming to see after the publication of the Yakutsk atrocity, Mr. Slepniak thinks can hardly fail to deepen the sense of horror which has already been civilized world at Russia's treatment of political offenders.

A WOMAN FLOODED TO DEATH

The news of the receipt of a letter from Mrs. Sigda did not come until she was the earliest report stated. She died from effects of a cerebral hemorrhage which took place on Wednesday, November 6th. It was concluded that the victim had been suffering from a cerebral hemorrhage for some time, but grew weaker until Friday, when she died. The news of her murder produced a great sensation in the city.

How they obtained the poison is not known, but probably they had long had it in their possession. The names of the woman were Marie Kaluzhaya, Marya Pavlova Kuznetsova, and Nadezhda Smirnitkaya.

THE VICTIMS AND THEIR CRIMES

Maria Kaluzhaya was arrested in 1894, when she received a charge of infidelity. Her father was a merchant at Odessa. Every means was tried in vain to extort from her the names of her accomplices. At last Col. Katsani brought her a forged statement, purporting to be the confession of her father, in which he promised to grant her freedom if she would confess to the crime. She fell into the trap, confessed, and her confession was used against her.

When she learned that she had been convicted on her testimony, she was placed at his disposal. She was then placed at his disposal, and she was then placed at his disposal.

Marya Pavlova Kuznetsova was a married lady 36 years old, daughter of a well-known landowner in the South Russia. Her husband, a merchant, was arrested in 1894, and was sentenced to three years in prison. She was then placed at his disposal, and she was then placed at his disposal.

Nadezhda Smirnitkaya was 33 years old and a student in a woman's college. She was arrested in 1894, and was sentenced to three years in prison. She was then placed at his disposal, and she was then placed at his disposal.

THE FLOODED BROTHER

Mme. Sigda was flooded under the Governor General of the Province of the Amour. The orders directed that the secret of the case should be kept strictly confidential. The case was then placed at his disposal, and she was then placed at his disposal.

THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT RESPONSIBILITY

Mr. Slepniak was asked whether he thought that the horrors at Kara had been made public, could interfere to mitigate the severity of the punishment. He replied that it was not unlikely that the publication of the facts would force the superior officials to take some notice of the affair. He said that the reports of the atrocities were entirely due to the local press, and that the central government was not responsible.

THE BOUTANGIST VICTORIES

A Paris cable of Sunday says: Elections were held in a number of divisions in the province of Boutang. The candidates were M. M. Nague and M. M. Goussol. The results were as follows: M. M. Nague was elected in three divisions, M. M. Goussol in two.
