to be completed

We have a great number of tourists visiting us during the past month. On Saturday the evening train from Halifax brought up a large number to spend Sunday in Wolfville. Our beautiful town is rapidly growing in favor as a summer resort.

The Yarmouth Electric Street Railway is now in full operation. It extends from Nelson to "South End" along Main street a distance of nearly three miles. The enterprise is purely a Yarmouth one, all the stock being held by citizens of that thriving town.

Mr. W. H. Smith, of Bay View, Digby Co., occupied the Presbyterian pulpits at Wolfville and Lower Horton last Sunday. Mr. Smith, who is a native of New Glasgow, is a clever young man and bids fair to be an able preacher. His sermons were much enjoyed.

We had a pleasant call on Saturday last from Mr. George E. Croscup, of the firm of Richmond, Croscup & Co., Publishers and Booksellers, New York. Mr. Croscup is a native of Annapolis county, Md., and graduated at Acadia with the class of '88. This is his first visit to Wolfville since. He expressed himself as much pleased with the progress Wolfville had made since he left here, twelve years ago.

Burpee Witter's Discount Sale is already attracting the attention of cash buyers.

The officers of Acadia Lodge, I. O. G. T., were installed as follows last Saturday evening:

C. T. H. - C. Johnson, W. T. - Miss Eliza Franklin, Sec'y - Burpee Bishop, Treas. - H. D. Johnson, Chap. - Geo. C. Johnson, Marshal - Richard Starr, Deputy Marsh. - Stanley Jones, O. G. - Mr. Blackadder, O. G. - A. C. Johnson.

Rev. Dr. Wilkins, of Chicago, delivered an address in the Baptist church on Tuesday evening, on the subject of "Young People's Unions." The church was well filled. Rev. Dr. Higgins presided and Rev. Mr. Smallman occupied a seat on the platform. The speaker gave a history of the formation and workings of the society, and the reasons for its organization. The address was interesting and instructive, and was very well enjoyed. At the close addresses were given by Rev. C. W. Williams, Rev. Dr. Higgins, and others.

We had the pleasure of a visit to Mr. C. A. Patriquin's garden the other day, and found everything as usual in the best of order. His peach trees are indeed a picture just now, being loaded with rapidly ripening and beautifully colored fruit. Mr. Patriquin has demonstrated conclusively that peaches can be successfully grown in this valley, as well as apples, pears and other fruits. During the seven years since he purchased the land in a rough state, he has indeed worked a wonderful transformation.

Local and Provincial.

Prof. and Mrs Tufts returned from their trip to the Pacific coast last week.

The next session of the Summer School of Science is to be held at Sackville, N. B.

Prof. A. E. Caldwell, who has been attending the session of the Summer School of Science at St John, returned home on Saturday last.

A special train took a large number of excursionists up from Halifax yesterday to spend a day at Kentville. The excursion was conducted by the Masonic order.

The communion of the Lord's Supper is to be dispensed in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath afternoon. The service will be conducted by Rev. John Murray, of Shubenacadie.

The Windsor & Annapolis railway will send to the World's Fair drawings and photographs of scenery along the route. The Fruit Growers' Association of Nova Scotia will make a grand exhibit of fruit.

Paris Green, PUREST, 15c per pound, at DRUGSTORE.

W. R. Campbell, secretary and general manager of the W. & A. R., has returned from a lengthy visit to England. He is accompanied by his brother who came over to see the country.

We have received the first number of Middleton's new paper, The Valley Scriber. Mr. G. S. Hutchinson is the publisher, and the paper politically will support the Liberal party. It is a neatly printed and well edited paper, and we wish it a successful career.

Best Paris Green and Plaster. Franklin & Fuller.

A meeting of the owners of the new three-masted schooner which Capt Potter is building at Canning was held on Monday evening. It was decided to call her the Bahamas. Capt Potter will be managing owner. Capt Tooker will be master. The Bahamas will be about 300 tons. -Western Chronicle.

The Episcopalians of Aylesford intend repairing their venerable church in the near future, and among other changes it is proposed to bring the organ down stairs. The Sunday-schools of all the churches are in a most prosperous condition. The Baptists have lately added a new library to their flourishing institution.

Pure Paris Green, 15 cents lb. Pratt & Collins.

The escaped suspect, "Jim," the confederate of Oaten or "Buck" and concerned in the Steadman murder, was arrested at a place called Bass River, near Hascourt station, on Friday and taken to Moncton. He is now in jail. He was arrested by ex-policeman Carrol, of Pictou, in company with D. M. Wilbur, special constable of Moncton.

Safety Bicycle, in first-class order, for sale. Apply to R. W. Storr, Wolfville.

John Fielding died on Monday at North Alton, near Kentville, at the advanced age of 101 years. The deceased has been blind for the past seven years; in all other respects he preserved his faculties to the last. He was working in Halifax at the time of the Shannon-Chesapeake affair and well remembered the excitement there on the arrival of the captured vessel.

See Burpee Witter's advt. of Discount Sale. Bargains can be found in every department.

Mr. MacDonald, who is to be in charge of the School Manual Training in connection with Horton Academy, arrived in Wolfville this week and will superintend in fitting up the same. Mr. MacDonald is a native of the Province, and has been studying at Cornell University. He appears to be well qualified to fill the position for which he has been chosen, and we have no doubt but that the school under his direction will prove a valuable addition to the educational institutions of Wolfville.

Have you tried ORANGE PHOSPHATE? Nothing so healthy and cooling in the drink line known. Try it. DRUGSTORE.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the ACADIAN.

Sir,—Can you inform us who is to blame for the existing inefficient service in connection with the W. & A. R. and W. U. telegraph office in this town?

It is possible that this, one of the most important stations on the line, cannot afford an assistant to the already over-worked agent? We think not.

The W. & A. R. management should at once awake to the necessity of providing an assistant agent and operator here.

Under the present arrangement the agent has to act as freight, baggage and ticket agent, telegraph operator, messenger, office boy, etc., and has more than he can handle with justice to himself and satisfaction to the public.

It is no unusual thing for merchants and others to have to make two or three trips after a certain lot of freight, to send a telegram or to get information, owing to the agent being absent at meals, or delivering telegrams at points more or less remote from the office.

The popular management of the W. & A. R. have given us a station we are proud of. Will they not give us an efficient office service to keep up the good reputation they have gained with us?

Yours etc., MERCHANT.

NOTICE.—A young lady would like to secure a situation with a lady as nursery governess, or would be willing to do light housework and sewing. For address enquire at ACADIAN office.

King's County Sunday-school Convention.

The annual meeting of the above convention is to be held in the Baptist church, Port Williams, on Tuesday, Aug. 30th. The following is the programme of exercises:—

MORNING SESSION, 10 A. M. Appointment of nominating committee.—Devotional exercises, led by Rev. S. B. Kempton.—Address of welcome, by Mr. W. H. Chase; responded to by Mr. A. D. Foster.—Election of officers.—Paper by Miss Cassie Caldwell, subject: "What do some Sunday-schools need?"

AFTERNOON SESSION, FROM 2 TO 5:30. Visitors' reports.—"A Model Sunday-school Session, How to conduct it," by Mr. John Grierson.—Opening and Closing Exercises of Sunday-schools," by Rev. S. B. Kempton.—Paper by Miss Nina McKittick, subject: "Home Preparation of the Sunday-school."—Resolution on Temperance, by Rev. W. Dawson.

There will be music during the different sessions, also a collection at each session. Opportunity will be given to discuss each paper. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance from all the Sunday-schools in the county. All ministers and Sunday-school superintendents are members and each school has the privilege of sending two delegates.
