Mrs. J. H. Horenstler, 122 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes: "When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair began to grow, and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

Ayer's Hair Vigor and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect.--Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1400 Regina St., Harrisburg, Pa.

POETRY.

The Two Doors.

BY AMELIA E. HARR.

Whisper "farewell" 'till midnight, To the Old Year whisper low; Then open the Western door, Open, and let him go.

Begin to Grow, and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown. "After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in clumps. I used two bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy."

A Miser's New Year.

BY M. QUAD.

"Miser Jones"--that was what everybody called him, and the title did not displease him.

"Here is the sum of $700," continued the miser.

"Here is the sum of $600. You loaned money to the owner of a small factory to help start him again after he had been crippled by fire."

"But all of them were impostors!"

"Men and women have appealed to you in sickness and misfortune as one fellow man has the right to appeal to another."

"I can't always be giving and giving!"

"Without religion earth would be a desert and man a savage. All that is good and noble and beautiful comes from our faith in God."

"It costs a great lot of money to keep up so many churches!" sighed the old man.

"There are destitute widows, fatherless children and grieving orphans."

"I cannot be giving and giving!"

in the room. The voice had come from the table, but he looked and rubbed his eyes and saw only vacancy.

"Sit down, Miser Jones. Sit down while we talk together a bit," continued the voice as the windows rattled in the storm and a heavy snow blew into the room and the door reached almost to the old man's feet.

"The old year has ended, the new begun, Miser Jones. Human life is counted by days and weeks and months and years. On the tombstones of the dead you may read that they who sleep beneath lived so many years, months and days."

"Welcome the order brave--Welcome the brighter hope, Welcome the kinder heart."

Forgotten be all mistakes, And ever again begin, When you open the Eastern door To select the New Year in.

"You are figuring on dollars and cents," said the voice.

"But I want no help!" protested the old man.

"After the recording angel of heaven sets apart a page in her golden book for each human being born into the world."

"You are figuring on dollars and cents," said the voice.

The Judge's Story.

Mon. John M. Rice Tells How He Was Cured of Sciatic Rheumatism--Crippled for Six Years.

The Hon. John M. Rice, of Louisa, Lawrence county, Kentucky, has for many years served his native county and state in the legislature at Frankfort and Washington, and until his retirement was a noted figure in political and judicial circles. A few days ago a Kentucky Post reporter called upon Judge Rice, who in the following words related the history of the cancer that led to his retirement: "It is just about six years since I had an attack of rheumatism, slight at first, but soon developing into sciatic rheumatism, which began first with acute shooting pains in the hips, gradually extending downward to my feet. My condition became so bad that I eventually lost all power of my legs and then the liver, kidneys and bladder, and in fact my whole system, became deranged. I tried the treatment of many physicians, but receiving no lasting benefit from them, I went to Hot Springs, Ark. I was not much benefited by some months stay there, when I returned home. In 1891, I went to the Hill-Urian Springs, Wakeshaw, Wis. I stayed there some time, but without improvement. Again I returned home, this time feeling no hopes of recovery. The muscles of my limbs were now reduced by atrophy to mere strings. Sciatic pains tortured me terribly, but it was the dreaded condition of my liver that was I felt gradually wearing my life away. Doctors gave me up, all kinds of remedies had been tried without avail, and there was nothing more for me to do but resign myself to fate."

"I lingered on in this condition until almost entirely by stimulants until April, 1893. One day I saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. This was something new, and as one more drug after so many others could do harm, I was prevailed upon to try the Pink Pills. The effect of the pills was marvelous, and I could soon eat heartily, a thing I had not done for years. The liver began to perform its functions, and has done so ever since. Without doubt the pills saved my life, and while I do not crave a testimony I cannot refuse to testify to their worth."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post-paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y.

Be Slow to Wrath.

If God were to be swift to punish as some people are to be swift to punish, the world would soon be preparing some more lectures on the divine cruelty. God is sometimes slow in meting out judgment in order to teach us poor mortals much needed lessons in moderation. Vehemence and precipitation are among the worst traits of human nature. "Be slow to wrath," says One who knows what is in man. Were men to imitate the divine mildness, patience, and forbearance towards offenders, society would be the better for it.
