WOLFVILLE HARDWARE & STOVE STORE

The Myrtle-Harder Co.

Wolfville people have enjoyed a real treat this week in the visit of the Myrtle-Harder Stock Co., which filed a two nights' engagement at the Opera House on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. This is by far the best theatrical company that has ever visited Wolfville, our town being the only one at which they stopped between Halifax and Yarmouth.

On Tuesday evening they presented Paul Armstrong's new romantic play, 'Salome Jane,' a play based upon the incidents in Bret Hart's Californian idyl of the same name. Although the weather was very disagreeable there was a good house and a splendid performance.

It was on Wednesday evening, however, in 'The Great John Ganton,' that the Myrtle-Harder Co. excelled. This is a very strong play and was exceedingly well staged and played. The large audience which filled the Opera House was instructed as well as entertained and the strong moral lesson which pervaded the whole story will not soon be forgotten by those present.

The company carries a large amount of scenery and stage equipment and is a first-class one in every particular.

The Wolfville orchestra rendered excellent music both evenings which was much appreciated.

Mr. Black deserves the thanks of our people generally for providing such high class entertainment.

Fred Pearson, proprietor of the Morning Chronicle, Dr. Hawkins, the great grip physician and Mr. Bob Macleath, the great grip counsel and lawyer, Mr. Bligh had the largest majority ever rolled up in a mayoralty election in Halifax. The grip machine was worked night and day, but its virtue is a thing of the past.

On Shade Trees.

DEAR SIR:—The shade trees of Wolfville are its greatest attraction and asset, and as a town its only beauty. There is dissatisfaction, so to say indignation, in the town over the cutting down of many beautiful shade trees by the Council and private individuals and the wholesale mutilation of them.

Yours truly, KATEPAVER.
