Imported Breadstuffs.

Some days ago we said that the imwere as follows: March 15th to April 30th, July,

Total, The total import duties on bread stuffs coming from the United S ates into the Dominion, British Columbia excepted, during the same period were $105,724.75—and the Globe takes these figures and declares, in order to bolster up a bad case, that they represent the duties on breadstuffs imports into the Maritime Provinces only—a wilful and deliberate misrepresenta tion of the facts. This is the sort of werk or which not only Tories, but all honest Reformers, are tiring.

There is another point worthy of nonce. These imported breadsuff. the Globe tries to make out, are chiefl. grain and flour, while as a marter of isci-and our contemporary cannot plead ignorance, for the official returns clearly explain it-they include not only grain and flour, but rice. bread, biscnit, arrowroot, sago, maccaroni, &c.
