of the Village board of trustees.

Moreover,, since James M. Thompson, Esq., moved to Moncton, upwards of two years ago, there have been only two members of the board, both of whom are Roman Catholie; and the newly elected trustee, who inaugurated his reign by moving for the closing of the superior school, is Mr. A Branch, who claims to be a Methodist. This, the same Mr. Braph, is the man who desire to take part in the discussion of the Bathurst school question, but perhaps you will find room in the co'umns of the Village board of trustees.
