FATHER MORRISSY PASSES AWAY

Beloved Priest of Bartibogue Succumbs In His Sixty-Eighth Year

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE

His Reputation as a Physician Covers the Whole Continent.

Rev. Wm. Morrissey, the aged and well-beloved Priest of Bartibogue, known far and wide even in distant British Columbia, and the Western States, as a most successful physician and practical philanthropist, passed away in Hotel Dieu, Chatham, Monday morning. Deceased had been in failing health for three or four months, and had been in the hospital for about two months.

Father Morrissey was of Irish extraction, and was born in Halifax, N. S., on July 10, 1841. In 1864, he was ordained to the R. C. priesthood, at St. Basil, Madawaska county, and stationed at Caraquet.

In those days there was no regular physician between Chatham and Bathurst, and few anywhere in the province. Each priest, therefore, was obliged to have some knowledge of medicine, and many of them became very proficient in the healing art. Father Morrissey's first charge was as assistant to Very Rev. Vicar General Paquet. He had been recommended to Father Paquet by Father Macdonald of Chatham as a young man peculiarly adapted for medical practice. Father Paquet, who was the most skilled of the clerical practitioners of his time, gave the young assistant every opportunity of practicing, and finally handed over that branch of the work entirely to him. Father Morrissey acquired great skill as a physician, and also possessed in wonderful degree the gift of healing without medicine. His powers became known far and wide, and multitudes flocked to him and were benefited, Catholics and non-Catholics alike applying for and receiving his help.

Some doctors at last secured legislation forbidding medical practice by any but licensed physicians, but an exception was made in the cases of Father Morrissey and an aged Presbyterian minister who lived near Holes town. No member from Northumberland or Gloucester Counties would have stood any chance of re-election had he voted to stop Father Morrissey's work among the sick.

Father Morrissey's second charge was at Bathurst and his third at Indian town. About thirty years ago he remained till sickness necessitated his removal to Chatham hospital. His memory will long be cherished among those who knew him and among their descendants. The remains of the man of God will be laid to rest in Chatham, on Thursday.

IN MEMORIAM

REV. FATHER MORRISSY.

(BY MICHAEL WHELAN)

A good, a great man's life is at its end. Upon his tomb the tenderest tears shall flow.

Who cared for all, who wept for human woe,

This priest of God, the people's faithful friend,

All creeds, all classes mourn, in sorrow blend

Their souls for this dear one by death laid low.

Whose kindly face with holiest love would glow

When summoned on sweet Mercy to attend,

The pangs of human misery to relieve,

To shed sweet balm upon some stricken soul.

Such was his wont, for whom our people grieve,

Whose soul has sought the higher, happier goal.

God called him hence,—we bow the reverent head,

Weep while we pray above the sainted dead.

TERRIBLE FRIGHT OF LOGGIEVILLE BOY

Thirteen-Year-Old Willie Smith Lost in Snowstorm on Miramichi

OUT THREE DAYS

Found Monday Morning on Island, With Both Hands And Feet Frozen

Wandering on the broad expanse of the Miramichi river for three days and nights and found on an uninhabited island, miles from his home, with feet and hands frozen, was the terrible experience of Willie Smith, the thirteen year old son of Horatio Smith of Loggieville.

On Saturday young Smith went across the river in company with several other boys to do some fishing. A snowstorm came on and Smith started for his home but lost his way in the storm and wandered down the river.

When he did not appear at his home enquiries were made and finally a search was started, but he could not be found. Later on his wanderings of Saturday were traced by his footsteps but the track was lost and despite earnest efforts no further trace of him could be found. Finally Monday morning Samuel Brou of Neguac, found the unfortunate lad on Portage Island, where he had been stumbling around in a circle for hours and perhaps days. He was at once taken to a house in Neguac and medical assistance summoned. It was found that his hands and feet were badly frozen, but it is thought he will recover. The boy was brought up from Neguac to his home.

OBITUARY

The late Mr. Thomas MacLean, a well known resident of Newcastle, having resided at the Commercial Hotel for the last few years, died Friday of stomach trouble. In 1871 he came to Newcastle from Beaulieu, Invernesshire, Scotland, along with Mr. Hugh Corbett, who settled at Petite Rocher. Emigrants Must Come Direct.

OTTAWA, Friday.—An order in council was passed today providing that all immigrants should come direct. The former order which was declared illegal by the courts, delegated this power to the minister of the Interior, instead of ordering it to be done. The new order has been declared to be with in the powers of the government by the department of Justice. The objection taken before was that the Governor in council could not delegate the work to the minister. An act will be passed also but a new order serves the purpose for the present.
