A Plan for Peace.

BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS. FOR THEIRS IS THE KINGDOM OF GOD."

To the Editor of the Star. Sin,—Please make room in your val-uable journal for a few remarks I have wished to make for some time. Not long ago you informed us through the columns of the STAR that you were sending letters to a gentleman in England who is writing a book. We would consider a favor done us if you would send this letter after correcting any errors you may find in substance. We feel we have something to say that might help to restore peace between that husband and wife, namely, Sir John England and Lady Mary Ireland. that seems brewing in the neighbour-hood of our camps is simply this: We were females. Furthermore we never make any distinction in dealing out property. Give one a chance to live as well as the other * * * * *

Now Sir John we have told you what promotes happiness in our camps. We can assure you everything goes on lovely considering the hard times, and we think what is good for home is good for the nation. If Sir John would con-descend to give our humble plan a fair trial in practice, we think there would be less fault finding on the part of Lady land it is not altogether on account of bad crops. 'We are informed that there are no less than 18,000,000 pounds of meat leaving Ireland every week, and a great amount of grain which is ground into strong drink, part of it sold to your children to take away the senses God gave them, and that on Sunday. We do not pretend to hold you blameable for all this state of things, but there is something wrong some-where when Lady Ireland in all her ancient dignity has to send out some of The estimates for the ensuing year her best children to a strange land not to buy corn but to beget. Yet what else can she do? Can the mother stand to see the children of her bosom pinched with hunger and cold?

> I ask von Sir John, as a gentleman, have you been a husband and father? You have the power to make laws for the welfare of your family; and it should not be for the benefit of a few when it is injurious to the rest. We are blessed with good laws in this our adopted country, the Dominion of Canada, and we feel as loyal as any man breathing, yet we cannot help speaking our mind believing what we say might tend to restore peace and
