It is reported in the Summerside column of the Guardian that the Sammer Fastuat "laid" in Summerside harbor Thursday evening last, "till the tide rose." It would interest the public very much to know what the laid.

Capt. Charies Arthur Trainor, a mative of this Island, was accidentally drowned in San Francisco Harbor of the Suh sit, by the collision of his schooner, the Maid of Orleans, with the ship Alameda. Trainor was aged 30 years, unmarried, and live with his widowed mother in San Francisco.

A Boston despatch says: The through freight express train bound west on the Fitchburg railroad ras into a passenger train standing on the outbound track at West Cambridge, 94: Roudsy, beleacoping the rear car, killing six persons outright and ripuring thirty-seven others, three of whom have since died. There was a dense fog and the outpiner of the freight train did not see the signals sent back from the passenger train. All the killed live in Boston and towns in the near vicinity. Feu or twelve freight cars were smashed into kindling wood.

CATARRH

Is a most loathsome, dangerous, and preva-lent malady. It is a blood disease, usually of figerotatess serigis, and for which local treatment is useless. Before health is pos-sible, the poison must be eradiented from SUCCESSFULLY the disease must be treated through the blood. For this purpose no remedy is so effective as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"For the past eight years, I have been severely afflicted with Catarrh, none of the many remedies I tried affording me any relief. My digestion was considerably impaired, and my sleep disturbed by phlagm dropping into my throat. In September last I resolved to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to use it as once, and am glad to testify to agreat improvement immy health."—Frank Teeon.
