Left for Washington.

The Premier, Sir Edward Morris left on Sunday for Washington. The ostensible object of his mission is to discuss certain matters incidental to the Fisheries Award, viz., the American claim regarding duns, etc., collected from them, and in addition the possibility of avoiding the holding of arbitrations on the question of reasonableness of the fishery rules and regulations for the Treaty waters. In avoiding this the Premier should keep in mind what has been settled by the Hague Tribunal, and not whittle away what are our undoubted sovereign rights. We presume also that advantage will be taken to discuss the possibility of a Reciprocity treaty between the two countries.

A Reporter Married.

Mr. Wm. Croft, of the Chronicle's reporter staff, was united in the bonds of matrimony New Year's night to Miss Margaret Maher, of Quidi Vidi Head. The ceremony took place at the R. C. Cathedral, Rev. Mons. Roche, V.G., tying the nuptial knot. The groom was assisted by Mr. Thomas Moore, and the bride by Miss Lizzie Glynn. Both were the recipients of many handsome presents. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's residence of the bride and groom. Quite a visit to "The Telegram" extends its congratulations.

TYPHOID FEVER.—A resident of Central Street who developed typhoid fever Saturday afternoon was taken to the Fever Hospital.

Harbor Grace Notes.

The s.s. Coban arrived yesterday with a cargo of coal to R. Rutherford & Co.

Wild ducks and other seabirds were very plentiful in the outer harbor several days this week and a large number were secured.

Mrs. John Murphy, of Riverhead, picked up a purse containing a letter and a post office order, the property of Mrs. Fred Brown. Mrs. Murphy left it at the post office, where the owner can get the property.

Mrs. Selma Plamont, widow of the late William Plamont, died suddenly this morning at the residence of her brother, Mr. John Sheppard, Kitchen's Hill. The deceased was down town last night, apparently enjoying her customary good health. Death came suddenly, heart failure being the cause. She was about 73 years of age.

A crowded house greeted the performers at the C. C. C. entertainment last night, and despite the very disagreeable weather a most enjoyable evening was spent. The Cadets opened the performance by singing the stirring song "Soldiers of the King," after which different drill manoeuvres were gone through. Two very laughable pieces—"The Doctor's Assistant" and "The Bashful Man"—were well acted and caused much merriment. The proceeds amounted to nearly $140. The entertainment will be repeated on Wednesday night.

The Fogota Here.

The s.s. Fogota, Capt. B. Barbour, arrived here Sunday afternoon from the northward. The ship left here Christmas Eve night and going north had very stormy weather. Christmas Day was spent right royally on the ship and all hands, including the seamen, in the cabin and forecastle enjoyed turkey dinner, while Monday week as the ship lay in Gander Bay the many saloon passengers enjoyed a concert and had a good time all round. The genial chief steward, Mr. Wright, acted as chairman. The ship brought 100 packages of fish and of these passengers: F. Chaffoy, Miss B. Way, Capt. W. Winsor, Capt. N. Bishop, P. Bishop, J. Haynes, J. Swyer, A. Winsor, J. Moore, D. O'Neil, Mrs. M. J. O'Neil, Miss M. J. St. John, J. Milley, W. Moreh, A. Silmars, J. Hall, H. Hall, W. Earle and 3 steerage.

Short of Coal.

The S. S. Britannic, Capt. Grotnes, arrived in port at 2.30 a.m. Sunday, short of coal. The ship was bound from Christiana to Newport News and Havana, Cuba, with pulp for the former port, and granite for the latter. The ship was 30 days all told on the voyage to this port, and 6 days after leaving Christiana, she was broken down and was towed into Leith by a trawler which picked her up in a disabled condition. She remained 3 days at Leith while repairs were being effected to the engines, and after leaving she had very stormy weather for the first 8 days with gales shifting from S.W. to N.W. A very heavy sea ran, while for several days it was intensely frosty making in for the Newfoundland coast, and ice fouled quickly on the hull and decks, and the rigging and superstructure were covered with it to a depth of several inches. She halted into A. J. Harvey & Co.'s pier yesterday morning taking 250 tons coal. Mr. Tasker Cook was the ship's agent here, and she proceeded on her voyage at midnight. The Britannic ran for several months to Harvey & Co., and in the Montreal trade a few years ago.

SIXTEEN SEPARATE CHARGES.—There are sixteen separate charges of robbery against the man Thomas Evans, who was arrested Saturday morning. He was remanded for eight days Saturday but may come before court before that period.

MRS. CHURCHILL DEAD.—We regret to record the death of Mrs. Jacob Churchill, which took place on New Year's morning. Deceased who was born in Portugal Cove is the last of the family. Her husband died shortly after the fire of 1902. Mrs. Cameron her daughter died 14 years ago and her son was drowned in the Amy Louise. The funeral which took place this afternoon was largely attended.

REWARD.—The Felldian Club, Board of Trade Building, will pay a reward for information that will lead to the prosecution of the party who entered their Billiard Room and stole therefrom the Steward's Christmas Box.—Jan. 11.

TROUBLE ABOUT FISH.
In connection with the loss of the schr. Fond Return, trouble has arisen about the fish cargo that the skipper, Gus James, was bringing here from Trepassie to Monroe & Co. The full cargo of fish said to be on board was a few quintals over 500. When the schooner was lost off Bay Bulls and the crew left her in their boat and got to Bay Bulls, the papers reported that the fish went down in her. It has since come out that the fish had been put on board Carew's schooner Star at Cape Broyle. This schooner arrived here yesterday with 400 qts. of fish taken from the Fond Return at Cape Broyle. The skipper reported his arrival to Mr. Monroe to-day and will get his freight. It is reported that the case has been given to the police and that the skipper of the Fond Return, who is now at Trepassie, will be asked to explain.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIPHTHERIA.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its forms can be cured. It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything, I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden. Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, Duckworth Street and Theatre Hill. Small size, 25 cents; postage, 5c. extra; large size, 50 cents; postage, 10c. extra. Mail orders must be accompanied by remittance.—Oct. 29, 11.

The Telegram exclusively reported a few weeks ago that Mr. Harkins, the popular manager of the W. S. Harkins Co., was negotiating for the T. A. Hall and will open there on the 23rd inst. for a season of 3 weeks. The company is a strong one and will put some of the latest plays on the boards. Mr. Kieley of the Nickel Theatre concluded negotiations with Mr. Harkins, the leading man of the team will be Harry English, who is well known and popular in St. John's.

FOUND HOUSE ON FIRE.—Mr. Colford, of Barter's Hill, Saturday night was asked by a couple of friends to spend a few hours with them in a game of cards, and had almost consented to do so when he changed his mind and proceeded home. It was fortunate he did so, for on entering his home he found the mantelpiece in the kitchen on fire and his wife and family in bed asleep. A few buckets of water sufficed to quench the blaze, which was caused by a defective stove pipe.

Thefts of Poultry.

Saturday afternoon about five minutes after it had been placed outside the store door for display, some thief made off with a 15 lb. turkey owned by Mr. M. Connolly, butcher, Water Street, and valued at $4.50. Who the thief is is not known. Saturday night a man passing near Edens' grocery, Duckworth Street, whipped a large chicken and marched up King's Road with it. The foreman of the shop caught a glimpse of him, gave chase and caught him. The man dropped the bird, and as the other picked it up gave him a blow and then attempted to run away. The foreman was too quick for him, however, and again caught him and marched him back to the store where his name was secured and he will be summoned.
