MRS. ALYAN H. MCCREARY, of Philadelphia, who says nothing she could say for Tanlac would be half good enough after the way this remarkable medicine has brought back her health.

"It is just glorious to have my health back, and in my opinion there is nothing I can say about Tanlac would be half good enough," said Mrs. Alyan H. McCreary, 1551 Locust St. Philadelphia, Pa.

"For two years I had all the miserable and agonizing symptoms that go with a bad case of stomach trouble. Although I lived on the strictest kind of diet, I suffered torture from indigestion and finally my whole system seemed to give way."

"I certainly know how to appreciate the wonderful blessing of good health and I have such confidence in Tanlac that I wish it was in my power to put a bottle of it into the hands of every sick man, woman and child so that they might take it and get well and strong, as I have done."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Fortune Teller in the Toils.

The exploits of the Crown and Anchor operator who "walloped 'er up" by Quidi Vidi Lake a couple of years ago are still fresh in the public mind, and we have had our fill more recently of hikers, strikers and pickers of divers kinds, but one of the queerest fish the net of the law ever enmeshed was taken in the police station this morning and lodged behind prison bars. He told the officer that he had arrived by the "Roseland" and admitted having been in jail at Halifax for fortune-telling, which seems to be his profession. When laughingly challenged to display his powers by forecasting some local occurrence he willingly complied and taking a greasy pack of cards out of his pocket, shuffled them hurriedly and dealt them out in little heaps on the Sergeant's desk. After studying them a moment he said: "A big event will happen on Monday night. It will take place in the Methodist College Hall. It will be a concert by the St. John's Octette for the War Memorial Fund. Don't miss it." Needless to say he was bailed out immediately, by Padre Nangle.

Obituary.

MRS. A. CRAWLEY.

There passed peacefully away at her home, Holyrood, on April 10th, Alice, beloved wife of Alphonse Crawley, R. N. Co. Mrs. Crawley had been ailing for some time past and contracted a severe cold a short time ago which caused her sudden demise. It was little thought that the end was so near and her death will be keenly felt at home. Mrs. Crawley was born in Moreton's Harbour and was in her 23rd year. She leaves to mourn their sad loss a husband, and baby girl 2 years old, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Osmond, three sisters, Gladys, Blanche and Mabel; four brothers, Stewart, Arthur, Baxter and Clarence, all now residing at Tizard's Harbour and many relations.—R. I. P.

On the resurrection morning Soul and body meet again. No more sorrow, no more weeping, no more pain.

Many Women Drinking.

Despite the many precautions to thoroughly enforce the Prohibition Act it is clearly evident that it is being evaded almost openly day by day. One of the large amount of drinking that is done by women who simply go wild over the new fruit-crushes that Mars and Company are placing on the market. Ask for the delicious drink in the crinkly bottle. Shopkeepers get your orders in early and don't have to turn away custom.
