The Hog a Big Asset on the Farm.

It is very commendable indeed for the government to send out such capable men as Mr. Flatt to discuss the agricultural problems of the Province of Ontario, and revive an interest in agriculture and the rearing of stock, especially the hog question, which is worthy of more attention by the tarmers, as regards feeding the different types.

There is no other farm animal that brings such quick returns, when properly fed and cared for. He is justly entitled to the distinction so often attributed to him as "Mortgage lifter," "tax payer" or "rent payer." In order to do this he must have type. A fixed type by a long ancestral line of good ancestors of good constitution, as constitution is the first requisite of a good feeder. At the farm of Mr. James Haggan,
