barrister on his knowledge of common law.

—The authorities are becoming thoroughly alive to the necessity for stringent measures for the reporting of all contagious diseases. In a great many cases neighbors inform the health inspector of the diseases in their vicinity before the physicians. Officer Hutchinson has reported four new cases of scarlet fever since yesterday morning, and as a result the following houses have been placarded: Mr. John Spencer's, 306 Grey street; R. C. Bredin's, 307 Simcoe street; Mr. James', 521 Richmond street, and Mr. Campbell, 328 Central avenue.

Remarkable Enthusiasm. Remarkable Enthusiasm.

Rev. R. Quarles, who for several months was pastor of the Horton Street Baptist Church in this city, has not been received with open arms by his Windsor flock. His people thought him too proud for his humble calling, and have made several attempts to get him out of the church, but without success. On Sunday morning one of the deacons interrupted the parson in his sermon and accused him of not giving a true interpretation to the Scriptures. An expelled deacon took the part of the pastor and waged a war of words with the deacon. A free fight ensued, the women screamed, men swore, and the former apparently screne church was the scene of a small riot.

serene church was the scene of a small riot.

Mrs. Keltic at Toronto.

The Toronto Empire of Monday remarked: "The congregation of New Richmond Methodist Clurch were yesterday favored with the presence in the choir of Mrs. Keltic, soprano soloist of Queen's Avenue Church in London, and the musical service was particularly good. Mrs. Keltic's ability is known among musicians all over the country, and her rare gifts, especially in the realm of sacred song, have been acknowledged and appreciated wherever and whenever she has sung. The two solos given yesterday were listened to breathlessly, while a trio, with Messrs. Gorrie and Martin, was a most enjoyable presentation. Mrs. Keltie, Miss Roblin and Messrs. Gorrie and Warrington will assist the choir in the annual concert to-night in the church."

Fruit Closet.

In another column will be found an advertisement soliciting donations of camed vegstables, fruit, etc. Many would gladly send a few bottles to some one of our charitable homes, but are afraid that what they can spare would be of no service in a large institution, or they have no way of sending their offerings a long distance. A charitably inclined lady of the city has offered to be at the Cronyn Hall Saturday morning, after 9 o'clock, to receive all donations and to become surety for the return of the campty bottles, to be, perhaps, refilled another year. As this is an appeal for canned goods only, which may be stored for use through the long winter, it is to be hoped it will in nowise interfere with the usual Caristmas contributions. Toronto and Montreal have effective missions of this sort, and London is not likely to be behind.
