PLAYERS MAY REVOLT. St. Louis, April 27.-The Post-Dispatch today says: "If 'coming events cast their shadows before,' the end of the baseball season will witness the strongest coalition of players that ever existed, not excepting the late Brotherhood. The reserve rule, the agreement between the club owners reguating salaries and the power to fine, suspend and discipline a player, with no redress, are the causes which are compelling the players to band t Zether for self-preservation." Anson says: "Clark Griffith is at the lead of the mutineers. The ringleaders are known, and no steps can be taken without the club owners being posted as to every detail." He intimated that t would be unpleasant for the player to became too zealous.

dent to Charlie Ginn. Arkona, April 26.—The funeral of Ida, wife of Mr. J. C. Lumby, of Petrolea, and daughter of Mr. Richard Turner, of this place, occurred here on Thursday last. Mrs. Lumby has been a great sufferer for many months past, and all through her illness gave great evidence of a soul at peace with its Maker. She passed peacefully away at her home in Petrolea early on Tuesday morning. Her remains were brought here on Wednesday and interred in the Arkona Cemetery on Thursday afternoon. Services were held in the Baptist Church by Rev. Mr. Baldwin. Mrs. Lumby was only 25 years of age, and many of her former companions were present at the funeral, showing to some extent the esteem in which she was held. The many friends join in deep sympathy with the bereaved husband, and also with the mother in her double bereavement. Mrs. Turner lost another daughter in September last.

PECULIAR INSURANCE.

In Connection With the Queen's Jub lee-Insured Against Missing the Show.

A peculiar form of insurance, common enough in England, but almost or quite unknown in this country, is illustrated by reports of recent transactions in London. There many persons who have invested large sums in rent-ing windows along the route of the great June procession have minimized their risk by taking out policies on the life of the Queen. A large number of such insurances have been effected at Lloyd's at the rate of 5 guineas per cent for three months. Double this percentage is the quotation for "risks" which guarantee the insurer from loss through the abandonment of the procession from any cause whatever; and as much as 20 guineas per cent premium has been paid on sums targing from £3,000 to £10,000 pounds against the risk of the route being changed. much business has been done ir this connection that nearly all except the most speculative underwriters do not touch any more.
