Quiet Campaign and the Results

Thirteen Out of Eighteen Members of Last Year's Council Returned.

The Western Fair Bylaw Carried by 179 Majority.

Five New Faces on the School Boardsome Good Man Defeated - The Vote by Subdivisions.

The absence of a mayoralty contest robbed the municipal elections yesterday of the

The cheering thousands who generally assemble in front of the "Advertiser" office on election night were represented by a fairly large but quiet throng of people, who scanned the returns soberly and then went home. A few small boys and as many horns made periodical connections but there was no demonstration. It was the quietest campaign in years.

The interest in the aldermanic elections was keen but as there was no Mayoralty head to the ticket, the vote was somewhat smaller than last year's. It came in slowly in the forenoon and the fact acted as a spur to the candidates and sheir workers, who exerted themselves to bring in tardy electors, with fair success.

The result did not effect a revolution in the council. Thirteen of the eighteen members of last year's council were returned, namely, Aldermen Heaman (John), Pritchard, O'Meara, Powell, Carrothers, Skinner, Heaman (Wm.), Garratt, Armstrong, Dreaney, Nutkins, Parnell and Marshall. In addition, ex-Ald. J. W. McCallum, who was unseated on a petty quibble last year, as been requested, by a handsome vote, to again take his seat on the board.

Three of the council of 1895, who offered for re election, met defeat. In Messrs, Brener and Jones the city loses two faithful servants. Ald. Weld was considerably in the rear in South London. Ald. Callahan and Ald. Ardiel were the only aldermen of 1895, who did not seek another term.

The changes in this year's Council will be: Ald. Taylor, No. 1 ward; Ald. Douglas, No. 2; Ald. Cooper, No. 4; Ald. Bennet, No. 5, and Ald. McCallum, No. 6. Every ward excepting the third, has therefore a new representative.

The honor of leading the polls in their respective wards falls to Aldermen Pritchard. O'Meara, Carrothers, Cooper, Dreaney and Parnell.

Five new faces will be seen around the school board — Messrs, Teasdall, Bayly, Bradford, Johnston and Burdick, Mr. A. O. Jeffery, of No. 2 ward, was the only retiring trustee of last year who stood for re-election. His defeat deprives the board of one of its most valuable members, and the city of an experienced educationalist.

The Western Fair bylaw, granting $25,-000 towards much needed improvements for the exhibition, carried by a majority of 179, the vote standing: For, 1,529; against, 350. The council has yet to pass the ylaw, and it will of course obey the wishes of the ratepayers.

As usual, the "Advertiser" office was cendezvous for those seeking the election agures. The returns were builtined by the lluminated process and were perfectly legible from the street. The promptness with which they were posted was universally commended. They were also strictly ac-

Deputy Reeve—Wm. Moore. Councilors—Dennis Collins, Wm. T. Hamilton and Wm. T. Duff. The above will comprise the village of London West's council for 1896. The election yesterday was exceptionally quiet, although the majority of the candidates and their henchmen worked steadily from the opening to the close of the poll. The defeat of Reeve Macdonald, while expected by many, was a surprise to his numerous sup-porters, who confidently looked for victory. Mr. Wm. Moore didn't worry over the contest. He attended to his duties at the Bank of British of Parish. over the contest. He attended to his duties at one Bank of British North America all day, and left his case in the hands of his friends, who showed their appreciation of his two years' service as village finance minister by returning him for another term in preference to the deputy reeve of 1895, Mr. A. R. Murdock. The election of Messrs. W. T. Hamilton, Wm. T. Duff Messrs. W. T. Hamilton, Wm. T. Duff and Dennis Collins as councilors was a foregone conclusion. Thus, it will be seen that only two of last year's coun-cil will grace the board this year— Messrs. Moore and Hamilton. The Pinemalt is the new cure for coughs, colds, and all throat, bronchial and on the new lines of medical adanvee— antigerm, antiseptic, cleansing and healing to all diseased parts. Unlike old style remedies, it neither injures the delicate nervous system with narcctics, to overcome cough, nor impairs digestion with nauseants to cure the disease. Pine has been celebrated in all ages as a cure for throat and chest troubles. The tall pines (not shrubs) of Gilead furnishes the famous balm of Scripture history. Malt stands in the front rank as a remedy for all throat and chest ailments. Malt has no superior in nourishing and stimulating properties. Pinemalt is a rare combina-tion—is both a local and a constitutional remedy. Pinemalt is not a cure-all, does not pretend to be; but all the time, and more surely, it cures in its special field, and here it stands unrivalled. For chronic or lingering cases ask druggist for Pinemalt and Hypophosphites instead of plain Pinemalt. The Newest, most Palatable, and Best.

The latest astonishing news which has | agonies of that awful disease, rheumatism, city of Hamilton is the cure of Mr. George March, of 471 Victoria avenue, north. His condition was desperate; the case was considered hopeless, as the shadow of death was clearly in view. At this critical time, the great life-giving medicine, Paine's life-giving medicine, Paine's "I was strongly recommended to give Celery Compound, was recommended. A supply was procured from H. Spencer Case. the popular druggist, who sells immense quantities of the Compound every week, and whose confidence in the marvelous healer is strong and firm. Druggist Case, noted for his great urbanity and courteous bearing towards his thousands of customers, is particularly careful that everyone asking for Paine's Celery Compound must go away with the right article. Mr. Case believes
