A Disappointment.

Bervaldo was another who did not race the first heat in handy fashion and slow time, distance was waived and the great horse trotted a mile in 2:03 flat, which with the exception of his mile last week in 2:02 is the fastest heat ever trotted in a race by a stallion. A high wind was blowing at the time, or the mile would have been much faster. At that he stepped the last half at a 2:01 gait. The summaries:
