Philosophy. Tracy—The Psychology of Childhood:
This new edition of a standard general treatment of child psychology has been revised and a chapter added, "Psychological Conditions in Child Life," first ogical Conditions in Child Life, hist published in 1894. Kleiser—How to Develop Self-Confi-dence in Speech and Manner. This work, though intended primarily for public speakers, aims to be helpful to men and women in all vocations. He addresses himself particularly to those who "de-fraud themselves by doubt, fear-thought and foolish timidity." Kleiser—How to Argue and Win: Defin-ite suggestions for training the mind in accurate thinking and the power of clear Religion. Burton—Biblical Ideas historical account following the idea the atonement through the Old Testa-ent, Apocrypha and the New Testa-ent. Prepared for the student with foot-notes and classified lists of authori-ties, but sufficiently simple in style to be interesting to the general reader. Cleveland—The Sollloquies of Saint Augustine, with notes and introduction by the translator, and effective statement.

Sociology.
Palmer—Self-Cultivation in English: At once a clear analysis of the funda-mental elements in the noble use of language, and a fine example of the use of good English. Strongly commended to Walker-The Pretty Girl Papers: Little familiar talks to girls on how to be healthy, happy and—pretty.

Natural Science.
Jackman—Flying Machines. tion and Operation: which shows, in illustration, working plans and text, how to build and navigate the modern airship. The book is written for the guidance of the ama-

Lankester — Science From an Easy Chair: Mostly deals with natural sciences. Chapters on Darwinian theory, astron-omy, chemistry, etc. Special attention omy, chemistry, called to the engravings.

of living the simple life.

Stickley—Craftsman Homes: An attractive and useful collection of articles from the Craftsman, describing and illustrating nearly forty homes, cottages, farmhouses, bungalows, clubhouses, and cabins. There are two chapters on "the simplification of life," and "art of building a home," and discussions of the different rooms, their furniture and decoration.

and literary quality.

Kelly—New Faces: A group of seven stories whose themes, with one exception, are found away from Miss Kelly's east side haunts. By the author of "Little Aliens."

Lane—According to Maria: A clever, amusing, and life-like sketch of an English woman-snob.

Laughlin—Everybody's Lonesome: A short stary though every house are found away from Miss Kelly's east side haunts. By the author of "Little Aliens."

Lane—According to Maria: A clever, amusing, and life-like sketch of an English woman-snob.

Laughlin—Everybody's Lonesome: A short stary though every house whose themes, with one exception, are found away from Miss Kelly's east side haunts. By the author of "Little Aliens."

Casson—The History of the Telephone:
A brief story of the telephone, neither technical nor scientific. Stone—Coat and Vest System: "To the representatives of excellence in the designing and cutting of garments for men;

shop.

How to Design and Construct a Power

Publishing

Day—Nature and Ornament, two volumes: The purpose of these books is to show the development of ornament from natural form, and its constant relation to nature.

Priestman—Handicrafts in the Home: The author has written several books on this subject. A general air of good taste pervades her volume.

Literature.

Chapman—English Literature in Account with Religion: Mr. Chapman laccount with Religion laccount with Religi count with Religion: Mr. Chapman, lecturer at Yale, takes up in order practically all the important English writers Cowper to the present day, and s the relation English literature shows the relation English literature maintains to the religious impulses.

Kipling—The Dead King: A short illuminated book of poetry on the late illuminated book of poetry on the late King Edward VII.

Leonard—The Pageant of English tures.

Leonard—The Pageant of English by more than 300 authors, covering a period of of adventure and romance which affords Hall-Tales of Irish Life and Character: An entertaining book, with sixteen re-productions from the paintings of Ers-kine Nichol, R.S.A.

History. Those who think that adventure is no longer possible in this practical electric-lighted age, will do well to read this record of the Canadian Mounted Police to the finest body of record of the Canadian Mounted Fonce conceded to be the finest body of mounted men in the world. The account many exploits are here given th historical accuracy.

Pollard—The Political History of Eng-

Pollard—The Political History of England: This, the sixth volume in a set of twelve, contains the history of England from the accession of Edward VI, to the death of Elizabeth.

Beautiful Tribute Paid a London Lady by the Organ of Methodist Church.

from the accession of Elizabeth.

Biography.

McTurnan—The Personal Equation: An inspiring book to all teachers who read the personal element in all matters of educational interest: Great lives of great teachers: workaday heroes; great women; human side of heroes; contribution of adversity, etc.

The Christian Guardian says of Mrs. Gregsten, a lady very well known and very highly appreciated by Londoners:

Ellen H. Robinson was born in Armagh, County Tyrone, Ireland, in 1832. She was orphaned when two

Betty in Canada. Gerda in Sweden

Fritz in Germany

HEALTH AND INCOME. Both Kept Up On Scientific Food.

Good, sturdy health helps one a lot to make money. With the loss of health one's income own living, good health is her best as-"I am alone in the world," writes a Chicago girl, "dependent on my own efforts for my living. I am a clerk, and about two years ago through close application to work and a boardinghouse diet, I became a nervous invalid, and got so bad off it was almost impossible for me to stay in the office a half day at a time.

'A friend suggested to me the idea of trying Grape-Nuts food, which I did, making it a large part of at least two meals a day.

Today, I am free from brain-tire, dyspepsia, and all the ills of an overworked and improperly nourished brain and body. To Grape-Nuts I owe the recovery of my health, and the ability to retain my position and in-

Read "The Road to Wellville." in pkgs. "There's a Reason." Ever read the above letter? A new ene appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

NEW BOOKS AT

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Miscellaneous.

Johnston—History of the Library of Congress: The first volume of a series of contributions to American library history.

Philosophy.

Juvenile Literature.

Douglas—Helen Grant's Decision: Another of the Helen Grant stories, Barbour—Winning his "Y": The hero of this story, a new student at Yardly Hall, has to overcome the handicap of two disparaging nicknames, "Moneybags" and "Miss Nancy," In athletic contests he proves his manliness and democratic spirit, and is awarded in the end his much-prized "Y."

Philosophy.

Fiction.

Brown—John Winterbourne's Family A story of family life in a small New England village. By the author of The More of Frank Bullen's inimitable sea Country Road.
Bullen—Told in the Dog Watches:

Chartres-The Devourers: This is a work of literary art in the true sense.

The scene, a sweet Hertfordshire country-place, changes in retrospect to Davos, and later to Milan, where most of the characters reside. characters reside.

Deland—The Way to Peace—The heart-rending story of a young wife who, for love of a new sensation, left her husband and went to live among the Shakers. But when in the second year she tires of her fad, she finds to her consternation that the quiet life has taken him and he has become a Shaker.

Goodrich—The Vardstick Man Abaker. Goodrich-The Yardstick Man-A busi nessman, his wife and a friend from the west and a country girl are the leading characters of this swiftly-moving story

In which a woman's unhappiness and a dramatic financial struggle lead to a stirring, vital climax.

Hickman—An Unofficial Love Story:
The author is of the Maritime Provinces.
The tale, while light in texture and plot, is written with a skilled hand and with s written with a skilled hand and with up-to-dateness that includes the atest word in invention and life.

Hocking (Silace)—Who Shall Judge. A powerful story of a wrong inflicted by deception and the ill results to wrong-doers. A father leaves his motherless child with a farmer and his wife; the child is lost; then ensues the story of he deception.

Hope—Second String: Anthony Hope Science.

Iachines, ConstrucA practical book lustration, working to build and naviship. The book is lance of the amace From an Easy ith natural sciences.
Ian theory, astronSpecial attention
ngs.

Arts.

of Living, or The

Hope—Second String: Anthony Hope has turned to a fresh field in his new novel. This book is a picture of modern English life with London and a country house for the settings. The strands of love and public life are interwoven. The story is both dramatic and powerful.
Hopkins—The Meddlings of Eve: A love affairs of her two friends. The book contains the leisurely charm of "Old Harbor" by the same author. The charm of the story lies not so much in the what as the how of its narration.
Hueffer—The Portrait: This is early Georgian. . A wager that Mr. Betwhat as the how of its narration.

Sadler—The Science of Living, or The Art of Keeping Well: Dr. Sadler is professor of psychological therapeutics of Chicago. The aim of the book is to present a practical, sane and sensible method of living the simple life.

Stickley—Craftsman Homes: An attractive and useful collection of articles from the story hand useful collection of articles from the story hands. A group of seventium to many. Now, her children rise and call her blessed. We hear the echo of their voice from Vancouver and Winnipeg, and the east, and, best of all, from the simple life.

Stickley—Craftsman Homes: An attractive and useful collection of articles from the story hands. A group of seventium to many. Now, her children rise and call her blessed. We hear the echo of their voice from Vancouver and Winnipeg, and the east, and, best of all, from the story hands. A group of seventium to the provided that the provided her blessed is the bow of its narration.

Hueffer—The Portrait: This is early the many. Now, her children rise and call her blessed. We hear the echo of their voice from Vancouver and Winnipeg, and the east, and, best of all, from the provided her blessed to the provid

Laughlin-Everybody's Lonesome: Laughin—Everybody's Lonesome: A short story, though sentimental and improbable, it is wholesome and will be liked by young girls.

Lincoln—The Depot Master: A duplizette:

ate.)
Macgrath—A Splendid Hazard: A duprepresentatives of excellence in the designing and cutting of garments for men; those who are imbued with a spirit of progress and also hold fast that which is good; to the advanced students of the tailoring craft, this work is dedicated by the author."

Atkinson—Sign Painting Up To Now:
A complete manual of the art of sign painting. Contains 96 designs or layouts and accompanying color notes, 75 alphabets embracing all standard styles, their modification and alternatives; a comprehensive text covering all practical phases—for everyday reference in the shop.

How to Design and Construct a Power

How to Design and Construct a Power Boat, issued by the Rudder Publishing Company, of New York.

Fine Arts.

Day—Nature and Ornament, two volumes: The purpose of these books is to the common life of today is well exemplified in the struggle of a young Swedish prince a Cambridge up.

vividly drawn, as is also the society who look upon domestic infelicity as a part of Penetanguishene; capital, $50,000.

everyday life.

Reed—Master of the Vinyard: By the author of "Flower of the Dusk," "Lavender and Old Lace," etc.

Tynan—Freda: Freda is an ill-used orphan. The desire to learn something concerning her parents leads her to London, where she has many adventures.

of adventure and romance which affords excellent reading for those who can en-Joy a good story which is out of the conventional and which deals with people as they are. Williamson: The Motor Maid: A girl

"GUARDIAN ANGEL OF THOSE IN DISTRESS"

of adversity, etc.

Matthews—Molier, His Life and His 1832. She was orphaned when two Works: The author, professor of dramatic literature in Columbia University, has sought to establish this biography on whose daughter kept school. Some sought to establish this biography on admitted facts.

Children's Department.

Mabie—Folk Tales Every Child Should Know: One of the series "Every Child Should Know," a selection of the popular traditions of various nations for the St. Bride's Church, Liverpool, on Feb. Macdonald—Little People Everywhere Series: A series of little books on travel, lands:

Retry in Care and a mations for the Betty in Care and a matriced in St. Bride's Church, Liverpool, on Feb. 29, 1860, and sailed for Canada shortly after. Arriving in Montreal on Easter Sunday. April 8 they attended the service in St. James' Churchthen on to London, which has been her

Fritz in Germany.
Figyelmessy—Two Boys in the Tropics:
Two fortunate Pennsylvania boys go with their father on one of his business trips to South America. The boys land in British Guiana, and learn much concerning the strange plants, birds and animals, the people and their customs.

home for fifty years.

Her husband died on July 12, 1869, and since then she has been, not only the "angel" of the First Methodist Church, but the succorer of many. During the darkness and sorrow of the people and their customs. During the darkness and sorrow of suffer except during the changeable her husband's illness and death, she weather of fall and spring. gave herself to God, to follow where which she still leads. In 1872, under Chase's Ointment. is liable to shrink, if not entirely Thomas McCormick, she became the assistants. In 1874 Mrs. Gregsten was elected the first president of the Women's Christian Association, and in the spreading and becoming chronic. For same year became president of the Protestant Orphans' Home. When the W. C. T. U. was formed she was made the cure is thorough and complete. president. She was also treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. tigonish county, > she presided, united in the one purpose Of all her abundant labors, however, her work among the children and the for Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is parpoor is most fragrant. She was the ticularly useful where there are chil-"mother" of three bands, "The Helpers," "Earnest Workers," and "Busy relieved at once. Obstinate wounds saving that they were responsible to been notified and are keeping a close ers," "Earnest Workers," and "Busy Bees." The two first have united with Circles and Leagues, but the "Busy can one tell of the many other things this good woman has been doing for fifty years? The sorrowful she has Toronto.

>
> Telieved at once. Obstinate wounds are readily healed. Baby eczema and all forms of poisoned or irritated skin are soon cured by this soothing, healing ointment. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., fifty years? The sorrowful she has Toronto.

Had Severe Pains In His Back.

Could Hardly Work.

Mr. Alfred E. Davis, Gorrie, Ont., writes:-"For some years I suffered from severe pains in my back and could hardly work at all, and when I stooped down to pick up anything felt as if my back must break. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after taking two boxes I was entirely cured, and feel that I cannot speak too highly in their favor.

"This was nearly four years ago and I still remain cured.

Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know the suffering and misery which those afflicted

Weak, lame or aching back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles

They help the kidneys to flush off the acrid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and urinary passages. Price 50c per box or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited,

Toronto, Ont. If ordering direct specify "Doan's." cheered, the sinful she has led to Christ, the impetuous she has calmed; ever the "minister's friend" in cloud and sunshine, and ever the guardian angel of those in distress. Deprived of her husband's love and care, with no children to comfort her, she became a mother and friend to

Announcement of Many Firms Incorporated in Ontario Gazette.

Toronto, Nov. 28 .- The incorporation of the following Toronto companies is announced in the Ontario Ga-

Holden-Morgan Company, Limited; capital, $40,000. Civic Reality Company, Limited; capital, $50,000. Metal Workers' Specialities, Limit-

d; capital, $40,000. The Canadian Electric Fixture and Contracting Company, Limited; capital, $40,000 The Electric Installation Company, Limited; capital, $40,000.

Lewis Whitewear Company, Limited; capital $40.000. The Ontario Jockey Club has been authorized to increase its capital from $20,000 to the sum of $200,000.

The Gidley Boat Company, Limited,

C. H. Tune, Limited, London; capi-"Lav- tal, $100,000.

Fort William Press Club. Matthew Guy Carriage and Automobile Company, Limited, Oshawa, cap-

Queries Answered.

BY-ELECTION OF 1905.-Will you kindly give me, through the columns Haydon—The Riders of the Plains: in the guise of a lady's maid, a man don: On what date in date in the chief "dramatis personae" . . . A Charles Hyman was returned for the city of London? Answer.-June 13,

> ALL QUIET AT RIO. Rio Janeiro, Nov. 28.-The mutinous vessels of the Brazilian navy, which put to sea yesterday to await positive assurance of the Government's good faith in granting their demands for naval reforms and amnesty, spent the night outside the bar, returning to the harbor this morning. The warships were still flying the red flag, but the crews made it

Diseases of the Skin

OFTEN APPEAR WITH SUDDEN CHANGES OF TEMPERATURE-ECZEMA AND SALT RHEUM ARE appointed by the mutineers.

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Cold, damp weather brings out eczema and salt rheum. Many who are subject to these ailments do not The annoying itching and the dis-

He led; and faithfully has she kept figuring blotches on the skin make her vow. Her first call to service was this trouble almost unbearable to in 1871, when, at the request of friends, those who are not familiar with the she became leader of a Woman's Class soothing, healing influence of Dr.

Relief comes almost as soon as this pintment is applied. Gradually the When a young lady has to make her which she still holds, with the aid of healed up and the skin is left soft, smooth and natural. There is always danger of eczema this reason the use of the ointment should be regular and perisistent until Mrs. John J. Delory, Linwood, An-A. Of her work in these offices, want to say that Dr. Chase's Ointment there is not space to write; but, united has proven a great blessing to me. I with clear judgment and much tact, had sait rheum on one hand, and were always the sweet words of the could not get it healed up. The itchpeacemaker, which kept the varied ing was most distressing at times. Two elements of the societies over which boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured me completely, and I gladly recommend it to every sufferer

In every home there is a demand

SMALLMAN & INGRAM, LIMITED WEATHER PROBS.: SMALLMAN & INGRAM, LIMITED

Sale of Ladies' Stylish Top Coats

113 new and fashionable 7/8 and full length Ladies' Winter Coats to be disposed of this week. Many at exactly half the regular price. Being forced to make more room for the display. of our immense stocks of Christmas merchandise in our Ready-to-Wear section, we have decided that our clearing in Ladies' Coats must be made now instead of later on. This will be welcome news to every woman who has put off buying her new Coat until now. To get such an assortment as we are now showing at and near half price, should decide the question of making your choice at once.

The coat has something to do with the price and the present selection will be worth at least 25% more to the purchaser as compared to the choice later on, when the collection has dwindled down to the few fag-end garments.

This assortment of 113 garments includes beavers, tweeds and cheviots, in navy, brown, taupe, fawn and myrtle, 1/8 and full-length semi-fitting Coats.

$12.50 to $15.00 Coats for $7.50

70 in this assortment, 7/8 and full lengths, including beavers, tweeds and cheviots, in a good range of colors, including navy, brown, taupe, fawn, myrtle, semi-fitting Coats, with coat and shawl collars, trimmings of corded and moire silk, strappings of cloth; a splendid selection

Christmas Furniture Gifts

Select now and have your choice reserved. A gift for the home is remembered every day in the year by every member of the

13 ONLY $12.00 COATS FOR..... $9.75 8 ONLY $15.00 COATS FOR $11.50 8 ONLY $18.00 COATS FOR....$13.75 6 ONLY $21.00 COATS FOR....$15.50 8 ONLY $22.00 COATS FOR....$17.50

In Toy Town

Coaster Wagons, Handcars, Sidewalk Sulkies, Limited Expresses and Wheelbarrows

All are strongly made, steel wheels and gearing, stout and firmly put together; made to stand all kinds of rough usage.

EXPRESS WAGONS, 75¢, $1.00, $1.50 and $1.85 COASTER WAGONS large wooden wagon, jointed handle and brake, wide-tired wheels:

outs strongest and best wagon. Price $4.00 HANDCAR, "THE FLYER," propelled by moving handle backward and forward (same as railroad car), steered by the feet, rubber tired, practically unbreakable; a great muscle developer and exerciser. Price.....$4.50

LIMITED EXPRESS ENGINE. "NO. 101"-This will make some boy happy. A real engine, real bell and smokestack, headlight, cowcatcher; driven and steered like an automobile from the cab; rubber tires. Price $9.00

SIDEWALK SULKY—A brand new invention; a real racing sulky, rubber tired with long hardwood handle; made for speed. Price $1.50

WHEELBARROWS—Large wooden barrows. with strong iron-tired wheels, $1.50 and $2 Smaller sizes, metal barrows, with metal wheels30¢ and 50¢

43 Full Length Beaver Coats to Clear

One rack of Stylish Beaver Cloth Coats, including black and all the best colors of the season: gray, navy, reseda, fawn and cardinal, full length semi-fitting Coats. The two styles described below will give you an idea of the styles. But to appreciate the values you must see and get right into the Coats. All are stylishly tailored, perfect fitting garments, this season's importing, and with such a color range as mentioned above you will find no trouble (amongst the 43 on this rack) in finding just the Coat you want at just the price you will be pleased to pay. For instance, in navy, reseda and fawn beaver cloth, a very pretty semi-fitted style is shown, lined to the waist, sailor collars, collar, cuffs and side sections trimmed with military and soutache braid.

Also a Misses' Beaver Cloth Coat, in navy, fawn, cardinal and cadet blue, body lined; collar and cuffs finished with strappings of material and silk embroidery. Regular $15.00 Coat, for$11.50 Come early for your choice.

100 American Sample House Coats $7.50 to $10 Coats for $4.95 Tuesday business, not wishing to take his samples back into the United States, made us an offer on the lot so ridiculously low that with Christmas in view we could not resist. You will readily understand, being this season's samples and American styles from a leading New York manufacturer, what an assortment one hundred samples means. Doubtful if ever you saw such a variety of these garments before.

They might be graded into lots and sold for much higher prices, but it is our object to clear them quickly before the Christmas rush begins, and have therefore made but one price, which will be the lowest in any case, as all are worth from $7.50 to $10.00.

Now many ladies will want these Coats, but may want them kept until Christmas. We are going to accommodate you during this sale. You may make your choice, and by paying a small deposit have it laid aside and delivered to your order later.

They are made of soft-finish reversible material, the reverse side being used as trimming; edges, pockets, collar and cuffs neatly corded and trimmed plain, fancy and heather mixtures, in light and dark grays, wine, browns, fawns, greens, navy, etc. Sizes from 36 to 44, but remember, best choice early. While they last, a $7.50 to $10.00 gift for

..... $4.95 See Display in Richmond Street Window.

CHOOSE NOW AND HAVE YOUR TOYS RESERVED.

See Window Display Egyptian Scarfs and Leather Goods. Dundas Street.

to the terms of surrender agreed New commanding officers have been

ANOTHER PUPIL LEAVES CONVENT

Reva Green May Have Had Companion in Flight From Windsor Academy.

Detroit, Nov. 28 .- That Reva Green, the girl student who escaped Friday probable that Reva went out one of night from the Windsor academy, was the side doors. She would have no trou apparently accompanied by another girl pupil of the convent, is about the the outside gates are locked." only light thrown yesterday on the Mrs. Nellie Green, 228 Lafayette mysterious disappearance. Who the Boulevard, mother of the runaway other girl is, her name, address or girl, searched all day yesterday for her last night. of the Holy Name, who conduct the learned from the truant officer that did he know positively whether Reva leaving the known that they would be turned over no one for the girls except the girls' relatives in this country, was Friday neart and soul, wholly, entirely, for to the authorities at noon, according parents. Neither could it be learned struck across the back with the limb ever" whether the two girls disappeared at of a tree that was being felled. the same time, or even the same night, suffered a serious dislocation and in-The sister superior of the academy ternal said yesterday afternoon that she had no idea why Reva ran away, as apparently she was well satisfied. Inquiry among the other sisters, she said, revealed that no complaint had ever been made by Reva. "We are at a complete loss to know why Reva went away," said the ter superior, who did not tell that an can't keep girls here when they do not want to stay. They can leave the building almost any time if they try to, al though we watch them closely. ble getting into the street, as none of her parents, could not be learned missing daughter. She had not returneither from the Sisters ed home at midnight last night. It was academy, or from the Detroit truant she was contemplating a trip to Ionia officers working on the case. to search for the girl. Mrs. Green is No trace of I eva Green, who is separated from her husband, who lives night. He suspected that she might ters of the school has established the Crippen throughout declared his inhave gone to Ionia, the home of her fact that the girl disoppeared between father. He did not believe that she the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock. Query that his innocence one day would had committed suicide, or that she among her classmates brought out the revealed, was kidnapped. Whether she had information that she had been seen The letters, which are printed as obtained outside assistance in making shortly after 7 o'clock. It was then one, begin with protestations of pasher escape, he had no idea. Neither dark, and she would have no trouble in signate love for the girl and repeat grounds was accompanied by another girl should she get outside the building. to be brave in the face of the end now when she escaped.

A palisade fence six feet high inso near."

Search for the missing girl will be face. saying that they were responsible to been notified and are keeping a close from my eyes! I am comforted in vigil for the runaway. KILLED BY A TREE.

hemorrhage, which caused.

ETHEL LENEVE GETS CRIPPEN'S PROPERTY

His Last Letters Were to the Girl to Whom He Protested His Innocence.

London, Nov. 27-The last statement she will be free from the lying tales of Dr. Crippen, who was hanged on of the newspapermen, and concludes Nov. 23 at Pentonville Prison, is pub-I have perfect faith that he will le lished in a Sunday paper in the form my spirit be with you always." of two final letters, written to Ethel The letters are not reproduced in thing to Miss Leneve. their entirety, it being explained

14 years old, could be found yesterday, according to the reluctant statements of a truant officer, last Investigation on the part of the sislight He superstant that officer, last Investigation on the part of the sisof a confession.

unnoticed, constantly the phrase: "God help us

then she escaped.

A palisade fence six reet high in so hear.

While it was admitted last night at closes the grounds, but the gates Crippen continues: "How can I endure to take a last look at your dear dure to take a last look at your dear must I so through What agony must I go through at last when you disappear forever thinking that throughout years of friendship never have I passed one unkind word or given one reproach-Dunchurch, Nov. 26.-Ernest Welful look to her whom I loved best in land, a young Englishman, with no life, to whom I have given myself

Crippen asks that Miss Leneve have his body cremated and if possible obtain the ashes and dispose of them as she deem best. He complains that his statement published on Nov. 20, omit ted his criticisms of the crown's evidence, with reference to the scar and the absence of the navel, which h considered most important, and proceeds exhaustively to analyze the evidence on these points. He asks that Miss Leneve go to no further expense in trying to secure further evidence adding: "I can safely leave further evidence to a just God." He expresses the hope that Miss Leneve will go to "Mrs. H.," where

"Tomorrow I will be in God's hands

The paper prints a fac-simile of bequeathing every

