THE GLOBE EXPLAINS

Treated Only as Other Newspapers Have

Been Treated. DUATE Toronto, Oct. 11.—The Toronto News has made the accusation that the Toronto Globe is in debt to the Government to the extent of $25.000 for postage on papers during election time. The Globe has completely answered the spiteful attack by pointing out, that in common with most of the other Toronto papers, it at first paid extra postage, and was later refunded the money when all the papers claimed that the regular rates should apply. The Globe agreed to the refund on condition that the other papers should be given the same treatment.
