Reid and Pritchett Winners of Elmwood Scotch Doubles

By Great Finish in Last Three Ends, They Defeat J. Duncan and C. C. Gordon—Kompas Beats Kemp and Tripp Wins Booby Prize.

James Reid and J. Pritchett defeated John Duncan and C. C. Gordon in the London Elmwood Club's Scotch doubles final last night. The score was 13 to 12, and the game was one of the most exciting that has been played at the Elmwood Club all season. Two other games were also played, A. E. Johnson and H. A. Kompas, winning from Tom Snell and R. Kemp for third place, and H. Bulpit and A. Tripp defeating C. Parr and G. Grant for the booby prize. The games were the wind-up series of the club's Scotch doubles competition, which has been going on all summer.

A rather peculiar coincidence about the three games is that they were all won by the score of 13 to 12. All three games were keenly contested, and were witnessed by a large number of bowlers, who got some real excitement toward the close.

Caretaker Presents Prizes.
Following the matches, the prizes were presented, and here another surprise was sprung. All summer the members of the Elmwood Club have been kept in mystery as to the name of the donor of the two silver cups, which were to be presented to the winning rink. As the games concluded last night, the winners gathered around the prizes, and no little astonishment was revealed when the club caretaker, W. Davis, was announced as the man who was responsible for the trophies. In a neat speech, Mr. Davis made the presentation, and also spoke feelingly on the splendid fellowship existing between the employers and employee at the Elmwood Club.

"Booster Night" of Elmwood Club Friday Evening

Big Tournament, With Ninety-Six Players Entered, Will Be Held Then.

The London Elmwood Bowling Club is planning another "booster night" tournament for Friday night. Accommodation for 96 players will be provided, and the draw will be kept open until 7:30 o'clock the night of the games, and the first 96 names entered will be split up into the rinks. A new system of classifying the different bowlers will be used in picking the rinks.

Two Prizes Donated.

Two prizes will be given, the rinks with the two highest scores winning them. Three eight-end games will be played instead of the usual four five-end games. Owing to the fact that the ground committee has met and decided to close up some of the greens for this season, this will be the last tournament of its kind at the Elmwood Club this year. After this there will not be accommodation for 96 players, although the Friday night tournaments will be played as long as the weather permits.

TIGERS IN THIRD PLACE

Chicago White Sox Move Up to Second by Beating Athletics.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 20.—Morgan's errors allowed Cleveland to score two of its runs and defeat Washington 2 to 2 today. Smith, former Cleveland player, led in batting with three hits in three times up. A throw by Grane to the plate, doubling Smith in the eighth inning, prevented Washington from tying the score. Score: R.H.E. Washington .010100000-2 8 2 Cleveland .000010020-2 6 2 Boelling and Deberry, O'Neill; Ayres and Williams.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Chicago went into second place today by defeating Philadelphia 8 to 4, while Boston won from Detroit. The locals bunched hits off Johnson in the first inning for three runs, and continued the bombardment off Seibold's delivery, but they could do nothing with Parham's curves. Philadelphia hit Russell hard, but when Danforth, who relieved him, held the visitors safe. The batting of Eddie Collins and Weaver featured. Score: R.H.E. Philadelphia .022001000-7 11 1 Chicago .020012000-8 14 2 Johnson, Seibold, Parham and Pinclich; Haley, Russell, Danforth and Lynn.

DETROIT, Sept. 20.—Detroit's chances of winning the American League pennant faded perceptibly today when Boston won its second consecutive victory of the present series. The score was 4 to 2. Hendrickson's single in the eighth, scoring Scott, won the game for Boston. Except in the second inning, when two Boston errors allowed Detroit to score three runs, Leonard was invincible. Score: R.H.E. Boston .0000200010-4 5 2 Detroit .000000000-2 8 2 Leonard and Carrigan; Thomas; Elmke and Stange; Baker.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—A batting rally by St. Louis in the eighth after New York had tied the score in their half, saved St. Louis today's game 2 to 2. Sisler got three hits, three runs and a walk in four times at bat. Score: R.H.E. St. Louis .0000000210-2 7 1 New York .001000004-2 12 2 Russell, Fisher and Alexander; Groom and Hartley.

World's Quickest Ball Game Was Played in 32 Minutes

But There Are Some That Have Come Pretty Close To It—No Records Broken This Season So Far.

WORLD-SPORTS ym inf inf twaxoa
Nine-inning pastimes pulled off in less than an hour are rather rare, but not quite so scarce as men's ball games. The first game of this kind was pulled off in Dayton, O., 32 years ago today, when Dayton and Ironton battled through a regulation contest in 47 minutes. That was considered a very remarkable performance, and would be yet, for that matter, although the game is much faster now than it was in 1884.

Just Like Cricket Men.
In the early days of baseball—the era of big scores—it was by no means unusual for a pastime to drag out through three or four hours. The classic of that kind was staged at Carrollton, Ky., in 1868, when a game commenced at 10 in the morning, was called on account of darkness in the late evening, with only seven innings played.
