They were doubtless attracted by the lowered prices of farm lands, which generally prevailed, and by the certainty that ven if one crop can be secured, equato the general yield of last year, the entire purchase price of the land will be regained

"Western Canada," said Mr Hinton, "is on the eve of tremendous development and prosperity. Splendid price have been obtained for the grain. The crop movement was deferred by fully month, but October weather has been extremely favorable for threshing and shipping, and the grain is now moving freely, and this will further stimulate trade.
