Umpire Wobbly.

Umpire Johnston of Stratford made a poor impression, calling a fluke in the seventh. Smith singled to left and stole second, Fitzmaurice was hit by a pitched ball. McGuire struck out, the catcher dropping the ball. McGuire by rules should have automatically been out, first base being occupied. The umpire called the man going to third base out, ruling that he had been forced. Again in the ninth he made a bad decision at the plate, which handed the game to Lucan. Smith dropped Pirie's throw, but recovered it in time to tag the runner. The umpire called the winning run.

TENTH LINE JUNIORS LOSE TO PARKHILL YOUNGSTERS

Homoners' Attack in the Eighth Ties-Win in the Ninth.

The Devoremen held their heavy guns out of action until the eighth and ninth frames of Saturday's game, tieing the game up in the eighth and blowing Connie Felds off the hill and winning third.

West Pittston, 107 (Wilson), $2.80, $2.60, second.

Wedding Prince, 105 (Baker), $4.65, third. Connie Felds off the hill and winning in the ninth, on a one-run margin, while Wernke held the Beattymen helpless in both frames. The score was 6 to 5. A big crowd saw the contest. Fields allowed but four hits until the fateful eighth, while the locals concentrated an attack on Wernke in the fifth, sixth and seventh sections of the game, good for five runs. Wernke was pitching to a rookie catcher, Ches Smith, and he gave a good account of himself, his steadiness on several occasions would have given a hardened veteran no room for blushing.

Wotell was celebrating a birthday Saturday, and his method consisted of getting four hits out of five times at bat.
