Frank Griro in Confession Relating to Murder of Frank Sciaronne

TORONTO, August 11-A confession made by Frank Griro, self-accused mur-derer of Frank Sciaronne, has led to the arrests of eleven other Italians, and more arrests will be made. If what Griro says is right, Toronto is infested with both Black Hand and Camorra, two of the most dangerous blackmalling and vengeance orders in the world. In the course of his statement. Griro spoke as fellows:

"There are at the present time a gang of Italians in Toronto who form part of the Camorra of Italy. Members of the Camorra are at present time on trial in Italy for murder, and the Italians I sneak of in Toronto are Camorrists, the same as in Italy. They live on the fat of the land, do no work and hold their fellow-countrymen in constant terror They form a society with a name that means nothing, hold fake meetings now and then to lure on their compatriots, but their main object is obtaining money with the dagger, stilleto, or gun always over the head of the victim." "Many levies were made on the vicims," continued Griro. "I gave regufarly, but finally tired of giving. I was arrested and many of my enemies started a story that while in custody I had een an informer to the pelice. This I denied, but it didn't seem to greatly alter their opinions. One day a membe of the Black Hand came to me and confidentially informed me that a price had been set on my head, and that I might expect to be murdered at any time. I had already heard that enemies were intent on having me, but on later information I decided to never go about without someone with me This went along for awhile, and every day I feared that somebody would assassinate me. I had trouble with the man I murdered a number of times, and every time he seemed to grow more bold. I finally heard that Sciaronne had been detailed to put me out of business, and my fears were then naturally turned toward him. "Whne I went out on Sunday I purchased a revolver. I knew I was going to meet deceased, and wanted to be prepared. I knew from information that I received from friends after the tragedy that my enemies were trailing me, and I made up my mind that I would rather be hanged than cut to pieces."

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Aug. 11 .-After burning over between seventy and eighty acres of brush land, and again endangering the watershed of the San Bernardino range, the fire which sprang up at noon in Devil's Canyon, was extinguished late today by a force of lire fighters sent from this city. Forest rangers charge ranchers with responsibility for the fire, which they say started from a blaze set to a brush pile, which got beyond control. When the fire started it was reported that it had been caused by some smouldering logs of the upper steps of the range being dislodged by a severe earthquake. The shock at 10:20 a. m. today was reported to have been violent in the mountains, and was felt slightly here. The Devil's Canyon fire, however, did not start from this source.
