The District About Fort Ellice—Great Floods—Sitting Bull and His Men.

Ottawa, July 12.—McArthur, a Dominion land surveyor, who has been at work laying out townships in the vicinity of Fort Ellice, Northwest territory, for a year past, arrived in town this morning. He surveyed with his party ten townships. There were some fifty surveys in some quarters.

"I am not," he said, "a professional player, and I am not well up in the rules of the game. I didn't know that an umpire should not give his decision until a claim of game was made, and I don't know that the claim wasn't made." There was so much excitement following the close, Mr. Ryan said, and so many hard things were said to himself personally, that he doesn't remember distinctly all that occurred.

"But I believed then, and I believe now, that the boys passed through the flag, and that the Shamrocks won the game fairly and honestly," he admits, however, that he may have been mistaken. That is absolutely untrue. I had not a dollar, nor was I in the game, staked on it, directly or indirectly. I had no interest in it except to see the best club win. THE SPORTING WORLD.

LACROSSE.

WHAT MR. RYAN SAYS OF SATURDAY'S MATCH. A World reporter had a talk with Mr. Peter Ryan last night on the Shamrocks-Toronto match, and the decision he gave on it as umpire. Mr. Ryan feels that he has been unjustly attacked in some quarters.
