Here we come to the present practical point in the whole business. The treaty of Washington, made in 1871, has lapsed, or as much of it as relates to the fisheries. And the consequence is, that on and after New Year's day the treaty of 1818 springs back into full force and virtue. It would have come into force again on the last of July last, but for the circum-stance that a temporary arrangement had been made to continue to American fishermen for six months longer the privileges granted to them by the treaty of 1871.

At this result there is raging affeong the fishermen of Maine and Massachusetts; and Mr. Spofford, himself a democratify frames a severe indictment against a democratic secretary of state. But, as Boss Tweed might have said—what are they going to do about it? Let them denounce as they may the treaty of Washington and the Hallfax award, the fashermens, but the old treaty of 1818, these must govern the case within three days from this date, Will President Cleveland and his cabinet deliberately and formally repudiate a solemn international treaty, now acknowledged to be in force, of the world, over his signature, on we have made that the would value his card to be withdrawn from the Mail, which was done.
