A SMILE IN EVERY DOSE OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Baby's Own Tablets are a regular joy giver to the little ones—they never fail to make the cross baby happy. When baby is cross and fretful the mother may be sure something is the matter for it is baby's nature to be cross unless he is ailing. Mothers, if your baby is cross, if he cries a great deal and needs your attention day and night, give him a dose of Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative which will quickly regulate the bowels and stomach and thus relieve constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fevers and make baby happy—there surely is a smile in every dose of the Tablets. Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WEST WILLIAMS

On Thursday evening the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLeod gathered at their old homestead to bid them farewell prior to their departure to their new home in Forest. An enjoyable time was spent in music and dancing. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. McLeod were called forward and presented with a generous purse and Miss Hattie Hill read an address. The address was signed on behalf of the neighbors and friends by John Machlan, Jas. M. Hill, Charlie Hill and Archie Fletcher, and duly acknowledged by Mr. McLeod.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Robert Moore, who entered into rest on Monday, December 13th, 1919.

Coming near five months ago (May 13th) since we parted.

Tears, sad tears, O bitter tears, Sickness, sorrows, anguish, fears, How oft we ask why this is so With us poor mortals here below.

So oft we wonder why it is thus, But answer none will come to us In our prayers night and day, Yet loved ones still are taken away.

Again we're plunged in sorrow deep In deepest sorrow cry and weep For a loved one gone before, Here on earth to meet no more.

Dear loving Mother, so good and sweet, How gently here you fell asleep, Whilst Christ, our Saviour, stood by you, To lead and guide death's valley through.

But now we must all say adieu, In yonder heaven we will renew And there for ever more unite, No more suffering, no more night.

Dear loving mother, rest in peace, You are happy now, O sweet release, You are resting now in yonder dome, Your song is now Sweet Home, Sweet Home.

O Thou, whose all pervading eye, Thou whose our tears can dry, O give us grace to overcome, Until we will arrive at home.

—IDA PEARL MOORE.

Address and Presentation

On Friday evening, April 30th, the young people of Bethesda Methodist church gathered at the home of Miss Blanche Holbrook to spend a social time with her prior to her marriage. During the evening Miss Holbrook was called to the floor and presented her with a well-filled purse accompanied by the following address:—

Bethesda, April 30, 1920. Miss Blanche Holbrook, Dear Friend:—

We the young people of the neighborhood, feeling that we could not allow you to leave our midst without spending a social hour with you, have taken the liberty of coming to your home to-night for that purpose. We have always found you a willing and cheerful helper and your assistance has contributed in no small degree to the success of the social and religious life of our community. We therefore wish to assure you of our appreciation of your services and also to assure you that we shall ever retain pleasant memory of our association with you. We wish you every happiness in your new home and in conclusion ask you to accept this purse as a slight remembrance from your friends at Bethesda.

Signed, Nettie Shea, Pearl Moffit, Reta Higgins.

Miss Holbrook replied, thanking the young people for their gift and all sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." A dainty lunch was served by the young ladies and all dispersed to their respective homes leaving with the bride-to-be many good wishes for the future.
