A very delightful evening was spent in the Parish Hall on Friday when a concert was staged under the auspices and in the interest of the boys' baseball club. Probably the most appreciated item on the program was the rendering of Mark Antony's famous oration, taken from fulius Caesar, which was very ably marated by Mr. D. T. Appleton. A quartette of boys composed of Messrs. Wm. Benner, Alex. Moore, Richard Park and Hugh Leitch gave several selections which were very much appreciated.

The boys of the local continuation school defeated the boys of Glencoe school in a fast game of baseball

Knox, well known athletic champion. demonstrated the correct form of berforming various athletic stunts and which was very much appreci-ated by the athletes of the school. In the evening Mr. Knox illustrated his demonstration with the use of motion pictures which showed every movement of the body when indulging in such sports as skating, hockey, baseball, swimming and running.

AILSA CRAIG SWEPT BY FIRE

Ailsa Craig, May 7 .- Children playing with firecrackers near a shed at the rear of White & May's drygoods and grocery store, on Main street, this afternoon, started a fire that wiped out both sides of the street in the heart of the business section of the Ailsa Craig Village destroyed ten business places with a loss of perhaps $100,000 to $150, 000 left six families homeless, and for a time threatened the destruction of the whole community.

Ella Dorman, village telephone operator, stayed at her post till the exchange caught fire around her and the flames breaking the connection forced her to give up the work of appealing for aid to neighboring villages. London sent a new motordriven high-pressure pump with Chief Aitken and a crew of six men who reached the burning village af-ter a twenty-five mile run in thirtyfive minutes.

In the meantime the Parkhill hose reel was towed down by a motor truck and 50 permanent firemen and volunteers joined in the fight besides the villagers. Lucan rushed over an old hand pump used in the village volunteers who manned the lines of volunteers who manned the lines of the bucket brigades.

The buildings destroyed in the blaze were: White & May's, departmental store; Joseph H. Middaugh, groceny; Alfred Clark, saddler and harness shop; Mr. Montgomery, Cockshutt Implement Company; Mrs. Jenny Chapman, Farmers' Seed Store; J. H. McKay, Messrs. Ball and Clarke. and Clarke.

It was at about 3,45 in the afternoon that the fire was first discovered. Little Charlie Dodds, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dodds, was leaving school not far from the rear of the White & May dry goods establishment. Noticing smoke emanating from the rear of a shed near this place, the little lad hurried uptown and notified James Priestly, the town constable.
