THE NEW WORLD ANNUAL FOR 1843 .--By an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that the indefatigable publisher of the Neie World, J. Winchester, Esq. intends issuing on the 26th inst. a Christmas and New Years Present, entitled the New World Annual for 1843, at the low price o 25 cents for a single copy, five for $1, eleven for $2 thirty for $5, and one hundred for $16. Among the engravings will be a most Ma jesty Queen Victoria, the Prince of Wales, & the Princess Royal. It will contain all the beautiful picture of Her most gracious choice and most valuable articles in the London Keepsake, and many from other English Annuals. Mr. Winchester deserves to be encouraged by every one who has the least taste for reading; and we do not say more than he is deserving of, when we assert that he has done more to disseminate knowledge at a very cheap rate, than any other person in either Great Britain or America.
