Mr. and Mrs. Arod Beals, of Lawrencetown, visited Mrs. Effie Bent about the end of July.

Mr. Fred Farnsworth made a short visit at home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chute attended the funeral of Mr. Stanley Moore, of West Paradise, with whom Mrs. Chute had her home for several years.

Rev. D. W. Dixon spent a few days with us last week, making calls and holding evening meetings.

Mr. Crisp recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sarty, of Granville Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gesner, of Upper Granville, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Bent and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Bent of Beaufort.

Mrs. Victor Bent and daughter Edith, of Lynn, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bent and children, of South Williamston, called on friends here on the 6th.

Mrs. Linam Chute, of Middleboro, Mass., who, with her husband, is spending the Summer with Mr. and Mrs. Otis White, received a very pleasant surprise on August 1st, the occasion being her birthday, when a large number of friends gathered and spent the evening with her. Mrs. Chute was presented with a large assortment of appropriate gifts. As she began to open the parcels that all might see what they contained, a box was brought for her to put the gifts in, but lifting the cover she found a beautiful birthday cake. A variety of music was furnished by the guests. Then followed refreshments, ice cream and cake, and the friends departed. We wish Mrs. Chute many more happy birthdays and hope that she will spend at least a few of them with us.
