Great growing weather.

Rev. W. H. Langille will preach in Providence Methodist Church, next Sunday evening, August 23rd.

Mr. Milton Nelly has sold his property at Lower Middleton to a Mr. Gould, from Kings county—Outlook.

Three cases of typhoid fever are reported in the vicinity of Bridgetown, only one, within the limits of the town.

Councillor deWitt has sold his driving mare to Dr. McClelland, who is opening a practice in Carleton, Yarmouth County.

The steamer Granville will carry an excursion party to Digby tomorrow. The Bridgetown Band will be members of the party.

Miss Blanche Charlton, of Rosedale, Mass., and Miss Ena Charlton, of South Williamston, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marshall.

The streets are looking neater for a cleaning up of the gutters. Now if receptacles for waste could be placed on the corners, it would aid in keeping the streets cleaner.

The Presbyterian congregation held its annual picnic at Hampton on Friday last. The occasion was a very enjoyable one and the day was one of the finest of the season.

Don't borrow the Monitor-Sentinel from your neighbor. It is inconvenient for you and for him. See our twenty-five cent offer to new subscribers and take advantage of it today.

A new sidewalk is being laid out under the superintendence of Mr. George Snow, at the end of the Bay Road leading to the H. & S. W. Railway station. This will be much appreciated by the travelling public.

Kings County claims the leader of "B" successes in candidates for the province, Lorrimer Why, a boy of fourteen, who made an aggregate of 566. His marking of 100 on each of his mathematical papers is claimed to be unprecedented.

The Methodist congregation will hold its annual picnic at Hampton on Tuesday next, August 25th. It is hoped that the older members of the congregation will be well represented in addition to the children of the Sunday School. None too old or too young to join in the outing.

St. James' Sunday School picnic is to be held (weather permitting) on Friday next, at Hall's Island, Lawrencetown. The party will go by the two o'clock train, returning by the "Owl." Arrangements are being made for the issue of excursion rates for the adults attending.

Special prizes are offered to Annapolis County Fruit Growers by the Horticultural Exhibition, a list of which is given on our first page. Doubtless our fruit growers will have some handsome exhibits and we trust will do all possible to retain the favorable impression which our fruit has made at former exhibitions.

The Maritime Board of Trade is in annual session in Halifax this week. Probably no movement if carried out would be of greater importance to Annapolis County than that of the Yarmouth Board of Trade, which suggests the advisability of the Dominion Government taking over the railways of Western Nova Scotia and making them a part of the inter-colonial system.

Rev. James Carruthers, Professor of Education, Presbyterian College, Halifax, and Dalhousie University, will give a series of two lectures in the Court House, Bridgetown, on the evenings of August 31st and September 21st, under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E., of Gordon Memorial Presbyterian Church. The subjects of the lectures will be announced in next week's issue.

Word has been received of the safe arrival of Mrs. Walter White in England, after a pleasant voyage. She is now staying with the Misses White, at "The Old Manor," Rampton. A little later she will probably enter a children's hospital for a three-year training course. Whilst there her children will remain at "The Old Manor." Her many friends here will be pleased to hear of Mrs. White's safe return to her native land.

HOPEFUL NEWS FROM CAPTAIN PEARY.

New York, Aug. 11.—Friends have received a letter from Commander Peary, who left here several weeks ago on his steamer, the Roosevelt, for a dash in search of the North Pole.

Commander Peary dates his letter from Hawkes Harbor, July 21, and says that so far his start has been preposterous.
The weather has been favorable, the ship has behaved well, and the crew and party appear to be of the right material. Says Mr. Peary, "I have found abundant whale meat here and in company with Erik we start north today." Mr. Peary continues that he is very hopeful for success.

R. S. E. C. CURES IVY POISON.

Dear Sir—Mrs. Sophia Hayes, aged 85, contracted ivy poison so that her whole body was swelled. After applying Reed's Earth Cure for a few days she was completely cured while others lay under the doctors' hands for weeks with the same complaint. I have used it for prickly heat and insect bites and found it removed all inflammation immediately.

K. B. DOERING.

A trial 14 oz. box of E. C. can be had for 25c. and if you cannot say it has been worth ten times twenty to you, I will refund the money.
K. H. REED, H. D., Shelburne, N. S.
