

CHAPTER XII.		PAGE
A worthy Sheriff and Judge—Dr. Dalton		89
CHAPTER XIII.
Ruth Ashton's introduction to Aunt Debie—Ruth's dilemma...		99
CHAPTER XIV.
A happy home		106
CHAPTER XV.
Mr. and Mrs. Gurney's satisfaction with Ashton—Mutual congratulations		120
CHAPTER XVI.
Ashton revisits old scenes		125
CHAPTER XVII.
Mr. Howe gives his views in regard to Canada		130
CHAPTER XVIII.
The banquet, and what followed		135
CHAPTER XIX.
A startling newspaper item to Mr. and Mrs. Reid		141
CHAPTER XX.
A base plot, and what it led to		144
CHAPTER XXI.
Utterly broken—Blasted hopes		153
CHAPTER XXII.
The Dunkin Act—A discussion in which strong language is used		159
CHAPTER XXIII.
The conspirators formulating their scheme		171
CHAPTER XXIV.
Alderman Toper's flattering opinion of the "Dodger"		175