

CONTENTS

OF

VOL. IX.

PART II. BOOK III. CONTINUED.

	Page.
CHAP. X. (Continued.)
Early Voyages of the English to India, after the Establishment of the East India Company,	1
SECT. XV. (Continued.)—Eighth Voyage of the English East-India Company, in 1611, by Captain John Saris,	ib.
§ 5. Farther Observations respecting the Moluccas, and the Completion of the Voyage to Japan,	ib.
§ 6. Arrival at Firando, and some Account of the Habits, Manners, and Customs of the Japanese,	10
§ 7. Journey of Captain Saris to the Court of the Emperor, with his Observations there and by the Way,	18
§ 8. Occurrences at Firando during the Absence of Captain Saris,	35
§ 9. Continuation of these Occurrences,	44
§ 10. Conclusion of these,	53
§ 11. Occurrences at Firando, after the return of Captain Saris,	59
§ 12. Voyage from Japan to Bantam, and thence to England,	63
§ 13. Intelligence concerning Yedso or Jesso, received from a Japanese at Jedo, who had been twice there,	70
§ 14. Note of Commodities vendible in Japan,	71
§ 15. Supplementary Notices of Occurrences in Japan, after the departure of Captain Saris,	73

3068739