Cure for Worms.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE;

Prepared by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO. Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

THIS preparation has now stood the test of several years' trial, and is confidently recommended as a safe and effectual medicine for expelling worms from the system. The unexampled success that has attended its administration in every case where the patient was really afflicted with Worms, certainly renders it worthy the attention of physicians.

The proprietor has made it a point to ascertain the result of its use in such cases as came within his knowledge and observation—and he invariably found it to produce the most salutary effects, not unfrequently after nearly all the ordinary preparations recommended for worms had been previously resorted to without any permanent advantage. This fact is attested by the certificates and statements of hundreds of respectable persons in different parts of the country, and should induce families always to keep a vial of the preparation in their possession. It is mild in its operation, and may be administered with perfect safety to the most delicate infant.

The genuine Vermifuge is now put up in one ounce vials, with this impression upon the glass: FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, and the directions accompanying each vial have the signature of the proprietor; any medicine put in plain ounce vials, and the signature of which does not correspond with the above description, is not my genuine Vermifuge.

The Subscribers deem it their duty to use the above precautions in order to guard the public against mistaking other worm preparations for their deservedly popular Vermifuge.

We have appointed Mr C C Bristol, No 207 Main St Buffalo, N. Y. our Sole Agent for Western New York & Canada West. The medicine can be obtained there at our wholesale Pittsburgh prices. Terms Cash.

MILLER THE IMPOSTER.

The gullibility of our public, never received so well-timed and severe a rebuke as on Sunday last, in this city. Some wags in the printing offices prepared a placard, announcing the intention of the prophet to be present at three o'clock on Sunday, and preached from the steps of the Patent Office. Long before that hour, thousands upon thousands were to be seen flocking from all quarters, to hear the great imposter. The hour of three having arrived, there were no less than twenty thousand persons present, and the ladies of our city were to be seen in carriages, and occupying the windows of every adjacent house, some standing on chairs, fixed up on the public streets, and mounted actually on the roofs of houses, on walls, and in garret windows, such was their anxiety to hear Miller. Verily, the taste of the age for the sublime and the ridiculous is not creditable to the gentler sex, who evince a desire to gulp down the raving outpourings of every mountebank that stalks through the country, and plunders the public. If the ladies kept aloof from such exhibitions as these, we would have less imposture, and a large portion of morality; but such is the public taste now-a-days, that nothing will keep the ladies from such exhibitions. I was delighted to witness the disappointment. The entire city were at the spot, and the Union was represented as effectively as if the Members were in Congress; it only wanted the Speaker in the Chair, to make it appear what I see daily before my eyes. Every Member was mostly present. The Sergeant-at-Arms, Governor Pope, Botts, Arnold, Pickens, Cushing and Proffit were present. The latter gentleman was called up for an inspired exposition of the "times that are to be," but considering himself a poor substitution for his great prototype, he declined. The Senate, too, was represented. WILLIAM MARGUM and a section of the Whigs, attended, to consult the prophet on the future prospects of the Whig party, and the Presidential election, but lo! they were sadly disappointed.

The whole affair may be called, in vulgar parlance, a capital hoax. The office-seekers, too, flocked to consult the great prophet on their prospects with the President, and altogether, the scene baffles description. Three o'clock is the usual hour on Sundays, when the different clergymen of the city preach an afternoon service to their flocks; and lo! the churches were all empty on this occasion. What a satire upon the religion and Christianity of a community! I only hope that the different clergymen will use this as a text for their next lectures to their flocks. The Mormons and the Millerites, if they were allowed to pass through the land in contemptuous silence, would soon sink down to insignificance and oblivion; and as I have an unmitigated respect for the beautiful and lovely daughters of Columbia, I sincerely hope they will frown down all future attempts at imposture, by withholding their presence from such scenes as these. As was to be expected, the scene ended in a public bow among some of the persons present.—Boston Pilot.
