

38. A House situated on Russell Street, near Wellington Barracks, containing 10 rooms and usual offices; coach house and stable in rear; gas and water on premises. Has usually been occupied by military officers. Rent $240.
39. A large House containing 14 rooms, all in thorough order. To be let in tenements, at rents of from 65 cents to $1.25 per week.
40. Several very desirable Tenements near Freshwater, at 50 cents to $1.00 per week.
41. Several large Rooms in Hollis street, at rents of from $1.50 to $3.00 per week.
42. A House in one of the most desirable localities in the South End of the city, containing eight rooms, pantry and bath. Good garden, &c. All in thorough repair. Rent $400.
48. The House and Premises known as "Willow Cottage," at Willow Park, containing 9 rooms and large pleasure grounds. Would be leased at a nominal rent for a term of years.
49. Another Cottage at Willow Park, suitable for a family of moderate means. Contains 7 rooms. Has about $\frac{1}{2}$ acre of ground attached. Rent \$150 till May, '77. Annual rental \$400.
50. The large and commodious House known as "Tower House." Contains noble entrance hall, dining and drawing rooms, library, and 4 airy and lofty bedrooms and dressing rooms, with usual offices. Commands one of the finest views in the country. Large and well laid out grounds of about an acre. Designed by the well known architect Downing. Would be let for a number of years if required, at the extremely low rental of $300 per annum.
51. A new Villa Residence, of modern construction, with every convenience, standing in its own grounds of about three-quarters of an acre. Contains 2 sitting rooms, entrance hall, and 4 bedrooms. Usual offices. Rent $200.
96. A first-class brick and stone Dwelling situated on Inglis street, with good garden and stable. Is carefully built, thoroughly drained and ventilated, and complete in every respect. Is an elegant residence for any gentleman. Rent $500.
97. A House similar in all respects to the above; not quite finished but will be ready shortly. Rent $500.