

This book says so in Matt. 5. 14, "Ye are the light of the world." At home, in the kindergarten, in the school, in the Sunday school, at play, everywhere we may shine for Him and may help to make the world brighter and better with knowledge and with love. We may do this with loving hearts, gentle words, and kind acts of service for others.

NATURE WORK. The great topic of light is more than you can use. Take some easy and general thoughts of elementary science. We cannot see light any more than we can see wind, but light is given us that we may see. Light travels very, very fast (186,427 miles per second), and when it shines upon a tree, or house it bounces from this object into our eyes, making a picture there. This is reflected light, and some facts concerning it may be told to the children.

Light is reflected twice, where you look at your face in a looking glass. The light strikes the face, and is reflected in the glass. Everything reflects lights, but especially do smooth surfaces. When the air is still, notice how perfectly the trees are reflected in the pond of smooth water.

ART WORK. Have some color study. A small picture in which colors may be named. Hang a glass prism in the window, and let the children find colors, like those in the picture.

The TRANSITION CLASS may recall any names of topics, or of persons in the lessons of the quarter, and make a list, beginning each word with a capital letter.

SCIENCE AT HOME WITH THE MOTHER. Talk of the language of love, which is the light of the heart and of the life. One part of love language is the smile, and one way of letting our light shine is to "Scatter smiles, bright smiles, as you pass on your way,

Through this world of toil and care,
They will cheer those who meet you every day,
Who have burdens hard to bear.

Scatter smiles, bright smiles."

Whisper Songs for September.

TENTH LESSON.

Give, little hand, O give
Freely, as the sowers do;
Give, and a hundredfold;
God will give it back to you.

ELEVENTH LESSON.

Love, little heart, O love
Freely, as the angels do;
Love as the Lord himself
Gives his love and life to you.

TWELFTH LESSON.

Love, little child, and grow
Heavenward, as flowers do;
Live just to love and give,
As God loves and gives to you.
