JOHN V. 39

This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased, hear ye Him

Matt. xvii. 5.

MR. SCHIVEREA.

THE labors of Bro. S. have been richly owned of God. At no previous time in the history of our Association has there been such a marked spiritual interest among young men. Night after night they assembled in our Parlor and no night passed without several having manifested a desire to be saved. The closing meeting, on Sunday evening, was the largest gathering we have ever had under our auspices. The Hall with its two galleries was crowded, and hundreds were turned away from the doors. The power of God rested on both speaker and hearer, and fruit was gathered to God's glory. We thank God for having directed the steps of Mr. Schiverea to our city and we sincerely trust that he may be led to accept the invitation extended to him to come and labor with us another season.

MR. MOODY.

WHEN we say that this honored servant of God has been in our city, those who have been in cities where he has been holding conventions will understand that the "city is moved." in every
