IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. MARSHALL.

Last month one of the old members of this congregation was laid to her rest. For many years Mrs. Marshall was a regular attendant at St. George's, and though quite lately distance has prevented her from attending the services, her interest in, and affection for the Church, remained as strong as ever. Her clever fingers were always engaged in beautiful work, and not only St. George's, but two Churches in Muskoka have Altar hangings and linen, worked and presented by herself. Miss Marshall has the sympathy of all the Parish in her great bereavement.

LIEUTENANT KEATING.

Another brave soldier has fallen while doing his duty, and England has lost another of her sons in far distant Africa. Mr. Keating was shot by natives while ascending the Niger in command of an expedition to put down a rebellion, so ran the cablegram with its message of sudden and unexpected calamity. Death is ever awful and mysterious, but most awful and most inexplicable when it comes without warning, and to the young. May God in His mercy comfort and sustain the family He has so loved and chastened.

Hidden from the darkness of our mortal sight,

Hidden in the Paradise of lovely light.

Hidden in God's presence worshipped face to face,

Hidden in the sanctuary of Christ's embrace.

Up, O Wills! to track him home among the bless'd ;

Up, O Hearts! to know him in the joy of rest,

Where no darkness more shall hide him from our sight,

Where we shall be love with love and light with light,

Worshipping our God together face to face,

Wishless in the sanctuary of Christ's embrace.

Parish Notes.

Sunday, October 16th, was observed in St. George's as a day of special Thanksgiving for the Fruits of the Harvest. Nothing could exceed the natural beauty of the day ; earth with its thousand voices seemed praising God. Within the Church all was bright and appropriately decorated, while the singing and the music were really beautiful.

The same Sunday was observed throughout the Church as a Day of Intercession for Sunday Schools, and though Thanksgiving was the keynote here, the other note was also sounded. At the early Celebration the Rector gave an address to all Church workers, and both Mr. Shortt and Mr. Goodman spoke effectively to religious education in their sermons.
