Commercial Summary.THE QUANTITY of beet-root sugar imported to Great Britain in 1870 was 165 tons; in 1882 it was 400,000 tons.ACCORDING to Chamber's Journal the milk-men have discovered a way to defy the lactometer. By mixing syrup of glucose with the water, it is stated to be impossible to detect the difference by means of that instrument, hither deemed an absolute test.MESSRS. GREENSHIELDS, BUSTEAD & GUERIN have dissolved by the retirement of Mr. E. B. Busteed, who continues in another office of the Exchange Bank chambers on his own account.—Mr. R. R.
Stevenson has been appointed selling agent of the Montreal Cotton Co.AT the auction sale of the estate of R. W.
Cowen & Co., this week, Messrs. McLean, Shaw & Co., the largest creditors, became purchasers of the stock, which realized 36 cents in the dollar. Mr. Cowen has been put in charge of the business by the firm.WE ARE highly complimented by the clever manner in which our contemporary, the Star, adapts our paragraphs to the columns of its Saturday edition; we think however, the new "city editor" should acknowledge the source of his information—once in a while.MR. M. Kortoski lost no time after the purchase of Taylor, Robertson & Co.'s stock at 27 cents in the dollar the other day, in having his sign put up in front of the premises—and no seizures were made. It is supposed the old firm will carry on the business for the purchaser meantime, as no arrangement has been made for a discharge.THE customs authorities in leaning towards a liberal interpretation of intentions may forget that a small fine is merely an incentive to renewed efforts. The importer who succeeds in getting caught only once in a while can afford to pay a little out of the proceeds; and it often costs nothing to try. Persian lamb-skins and sealskins mantles would appear to be rather favored in recent years.
