

did not attend the meeting, but he hoped that they would attend the competitors' meeting to-day. On motion of Major Radiger, seconded by Major Blaiklock, Mr. J. L. Harcourt, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was elected a life member. Mr. Arthur Ware, seconded by Major Blaiklock, moved a hearty vote of thanks to Major A. H. Sims for the handsome and valuable silver cup he had presented for competition. Unanimously carried.

Major Sims said that he wished to call the attention of the members to the disgraceful state in which the Carslake cup had been returned, and said it was a matter of regret that any of the challenge cups should be in such a condition. Why, when ladies came to the ranges they would like to see the trophies clean.

Col. Hood—"So would the shooting men."

Major Sims said it was a poor compliment to Mr. Carslake or any other donor to know that their cups were in such a condition, and he recommended that the secretary be instructed to have it cleaned and send the bill to Lieut.-Col. Burland.

Major Radiger said that, in justice to Lieut.-Col. Burland, that gentleman had told him that he had sent it to the engravers to be engraved and cleaned, and no doubt he thought it had been cleaned.

Major Sims then moved, seconded by Lieut. Andrews, that Lieut.-Col. Burland be requested to have the cup in proper order and then returned to the treasurer. This was carried and the meeting adjourned.
