The hun of it! Here is William II.: Filth and purity cannot associate. Yet the foundation of "What do I think is him? Well," It is well that Mr. Moore's father, who was a good Catholic, is not alive to behold the degeneracy of his son. The reason offered by the turncoat for his apostasy is worth noting. It is not religious, but political and it is only within the past couple of years that the world had any reason to suspect that Mr. Moore had any political convictions whatever. He writes: "I decided to leave the Church of Rome when I read the announcement that the Roman Catholic Archbishop had attended the King's Levee, and Maynooth was preparing to receive the King in spite of the opinion of Irish Nationalists." It is to the "Irish Times," a bitter Orange sheet, that Mr. Moore sends this curious piece of news; and it is this same thing to the Germans." Mr. in, uncle; go in, Boer. THE MARKS OF A LADY.

There are certain marks of a lady gentle voice, refinement in the use of language and neatness in dress. Not all girls can be educated, but they can be thoughtful in the use of words, and can eliminate from their vocabulary all slang. Slang from the lips of a woman is exceedingly vulgar. A gentle voice is possible. Thoughtlessness more NEW ENGLAND STATES than anything else is responsible for the loud, harsh tones often heard when girls are in conversation. Loud speaking spoils the attractiveness of the most beautiful any of those who are serving their face. It is worse than giggling, for the giggling girl may sober down that seems at present open to them, when she gets older, but the loudmouthed girl is likely to become JAPAN louder. Neatness is an essential characteristic of womanliness. The clothes may be poor, the wardrobe in Boston last week. The hands is neat in her dress. The slovenly cast and westbound.
